SOME SUGGESTIONS

By Dr. Howard as to Improving the Health of the City.

We are glad to hear the favorable report of the board of health, made to the city authorities, and of the improved and healthy condition of the people and of the abatement of the fever. We are inclined to think that this improvement is due largely to the improved sanitary regulations of the city authorities.

DR. N. E. HOWARD.

There are three conditions, which point (us to state, may be the prime cause of producing sickness, or of increasing it, when already existing.

First, the unhealthy conditions under and around the houses in which we reside, as decaying vegetable or animal matter under the house, or the rotten logs, which may be the foundation of the house or water in old cellars. Evaporation is going on from these decaying matters, we breathe the unwholesome gases while asleep and sickness is thus induced. As we do not resist such influence when asleep so much as we do when awake. The remedy is that all such substances should be at once removed, and cleanliness under the house or well as about it should be maintained.

Second, impure water that we drink or use is a great promoter of ill-health, and our wells and springs should be kept cleaned of all decaying matter.

Some years ago out in the country, I drank from a spring of what I thought to be very good water and in a very few moments I became quite sick. I returned to the spring to examine and see what was the cause. I discovered some decaying leaves and sticks at the bottom of the spring. On agitating the water I saw a great number of small water wood lice swimming off from this decaying vegetable matter. Of course no one could maintain good health long, while drinking such water from day to day.

Third, the next potent cause of sickness is this: The condition of our water-closets in town and country. Let the people throughout the whole country read in the Bible the instructions, laid down for the Jews to keep and follow them. The excrement of man is said to be more pernicious and poisonous than that of the inferior animals. A shovel full of earth and clay mixed and thrown into our water-closets, day by day, would give great relief and add much to the purity of the atmosphere by absorbing unhealthy odors and gases that would otherwise if inhaled promote ill-health.

We want to express our approval of the plans instituted by our city authorities in removing these offensive and unhealthy matters entirely from our city every week at least. I wish to relate a statement made by Mr. Vest some five or six years ago. I took him in my buggy to the top of a mountain called "Nobo" three miles north of Dahlonega to see a gold mine. On the trip he made this statement to me, which was in the form of an interrogation, and somewhat startled me. "Do you not think that the condition of the water-closets, and the want of them throughout the whole country, exposing our small live stock such as hogs chickens, and other fowls and even eggs to this condition of things, causes them to be unhealthy and renders them unwholesome for the food of man, and may they not therefore produce typhoid fever. Is not this question of our friend worthy of the thought and consideration of those who are lovers of health?"

Questions for Women

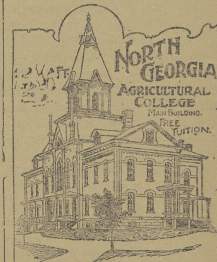

Are you nervous?
Do you suffer every month?
If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, you have the Wine of Cardui cures. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion, startle menstrual disorders that are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into trouble-making complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition. This medicine is taken quickly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. It costs only $1 to last this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women. Mrs. Lena T. Friesburg, East St. Louis, Ill., says: "I am physically a new woman, by reason of my use of Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black Draught." THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 5, 1900.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

There will not be much interest taken here in the next election, which will cause a small turn out.

A. M. Sifton, of Dawson county, is raising tobacco with leaves 20 inches in width and 32 inches long, says the Dawsonville Advertiser.

Charles A. Collier, ex-mayor of Atlanta, who shot himself accidentally Thursday night died from the effects of the wound Saturday morning.

Elections certainly bring about a sudden change, causing some to feel glad and some to feel sad, but trust in the Lord and He will carry you through the battle of life.

The most important election is over and it is hoped now that we will all have a rest. Really we should not have elections oftener than every four years now way.

Out of the 5,000 people estimated to have been killed at Galveston, Tex., recently, a large proportion was negroes, and as the life insurance companies do not insure negroes their loss will not be very large.

Colorado roughs treated Gov. Roosevelt pretty badly when he went to address them at Victor the other day, by throwing stones at him causing the Governor to have to leave out after receiving a blow or two, under the escort of the rough riders.

In Gainesville they printed election tickets for $1.50 per thousand. Here the primary men had to pay two and the independents three dollars per thousand. This was caused by our job press not being large enough to do the work. If not called home by the next election we will make arrangements to print tickets at a reasonable price.

When a business man admits by a painted sign or a display window that he wants business he can give one of but three reasons if he fails to advertise in the newspapers, viz: That the amount of business in his line in the community is too small to warrant the expense, that he lacks the money required for the best form of advertising, or that his judgement is bad and is not influenced by obvious facts. The most successful business men are the most persistent of newspaper advertisers.—Ex

An untold amount of real humiliation and suffering is inflicted upon men and women striving to serve God in the church, by a lack of appreciation of their point of view. Put yourself in their places. Would not you resent being an object of disapproval, or when the case is bettered, an object of charity? Would you enjoy feeling that your hat, your coat, your dress and your children's clothes were matters of comment, and that the parish felt that the money paid your husband must be spent to please it and not yourself?—"A Minister's Wife," in the October Ladies' Home Journal.

The escape of William E. Rogers, of Markle street, Manayunk, from the death that overwhelmed his room mate during the Galveston tornado, was marvelous. The young man was reported among the killed, but a letter received by his mother relates his narrow escape. Rodgers writes that he was in his room when the roof of the house in which he lived was lifted off. The next instant the air was full of flying objects. To avoid being struck he threw himself under his bed and remained there until after the disturbance had somewhat subsided when he crawled out to find that his bedfellow, a young man of Mansfield, Ohio, was lying dead in the middle of the floor. Rodgers realized that the building would soon collapse and at once made his way out. A moment later the house was swept away.

Wants the Railroad Built to Atlanta.

BARRETTSVILLE, GA.,

Oct. 1, 1900.

MR. EDITOR:—

In reading your issue of September 27th, the writer reads with interest what you say in regard to our peoples needs for a railroad from the Gate City. (Atlanta), passing through Milton, Forsyth, Dawson on to Dahlonega, penetrating by far the richest gold fields and as fine magnetic ore beds as can be found in our Sunny South. Friends, let us do all we can to encourage and to get on foot the construction of a railroad through the above named counties. The writer has but a very small interest in this section but feels and realizes the needs of a railroad communication with the out side world and being a wage worker, as a great many of our people are, I am willing and ready with open heart and purse to do fully my part to encourage and aid in the construction of a R. R. through this North Ga. section so far distant from the outside world. Some of our farmers and wage earners will say: "Oh, a railroad would not be worth any thing to me." I beg your pardon. Think about us poor fellows eating 11 and 12 cents meat or no meat at all when our neighbors near the railroad get meat at 8 to 8 1/2 cents per pound, and another things in proportion.

Now friends, the election is over let us go to work with as much earnestness and as great zeal as some of our candidates have worked for an office, and in less than twelve months our efforts will be crowned with the beginning of a railroad from Atlanta to Dahlonega. With a railroad through the above named section and as few negro laborers as there are, and with the fine timber, tan bark, gold fields and iron ore beds, our strong and able bodied men now idle so much, could get all the work they could do and would soon be up abreast with the times. Besides it would give us farmers and the farmers wife a home market for all the products so easily raised on the farm. Hoping to hear something from the farmer and wage worker as well as the country editor in regard to a railroad, I am yours for a railroad.

WAGE WORKER.

Mining Notes.

N. H. Kennedy shipped to New York last Monday a fine lot of soapstone taken from the quarry east of the Chestatee river. The parties wish to make a test with a view of establishing works here if the article proved satisfactory.

It is gratifying for us to be able this week to announce that two more charters are being asked for by companies, the members of which reside in the north, who wish to carry on the business of mining and other industries in Lumpkin county, as will be seen by referring to our advertising columns. The first being the petition of F. L. Murray, G. L. Fisher and T. R. Cravens, all of Illinois, who desire to be incorporated under the name and style of The Amicalola Water Power and Mining Company, capitalizing at one million dollars, and the next is F. L. Murray, T. R. Cravens and R. S. Disney, who wish their company incorporated and known as The Murray Hill Mining Company, both companies wishing to begin work as soon as their charters are granted which will be done in in about three weeks.

We have but very little new to report about the mines this week as everybody has been mixed up so much with politics for some days that all you could hear was the election.

Some few changes have taken place down at the Hand this week. H. T. Henderson, of Tennessee, taking Mr. Brooks' place in the management of the mine, and D. W. Phillips, of Hall county, has charge of the mechanics in place of Mr. Sweet. Both of these gentlemen have experience of many years in the business and will carry on the work under their charge without any trouble. All the other work at this mine is being pushed along in the usual business like manner. At the tunnel, up at the Blue Ridge, they are getting along splendid, two hundred feet of the rock work, having already been cut.

After a suspension of some time at the Calhoun mine, caused by the breaking of the pump the repairs have been made good and work was again resumed middle of this week. Loggins and Clements are working at a new discovery on this property and are taking out some splendid ore.

A fellow in Tennessee, after attending a barbecue returned home to find a cracked place a foot wide around the house, and the bottom could not be reached with a hoe handle. The occupants were afraid to stay in the house after the discovery, thinking the place might sink. When the neighbors heard it they all took an added interest in a revival planning going on near there because of fears which beset them.—Ex.

An exchange says: Morristown, Mine was struck by a cyclone Sept. 24 at about 6 o'clock in the evening which lifted a barn and carried it to a saloon, where sixteen persons had taken shelter from the storm and dropped the barn on the saloon killing eight persons out right and wounding others.

NERVOUSNESS, An American Disease.

DR. S. W. MITCHELL is authority for the statement that nervousness is the characteristic malady of the American nation, and statistics show that nerve disease number one-fourth of all deaths recorded, the mortality being mainly among young people.

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

is the grand specific for this great American disease, because it goes straight to the source of the weakness, building up health and strength by supplying rich, abundant food and pure blood to the worn-out tissues, rousing the liver to activity and regulating all the organs of the body.

A Lone Highwayman Holds Up a Train.

Through the kindness of Mr. Whorton, who is now at Spokane, Wash., we were sent a paper of that city containing a full account of a lone masked man holding up a train at 2 o'clock the other morning on the Northern Pacific near Athol, Idaho, who succeeded in getting from the passengers about $400 and many watches and much other jewelry and then stepped off safely into the darkness unhurt. The conductor fired two shots at the robber who returned the fire without injury and passed on.

It may seem a little strange for a single man to take what he wanted from the passengers of a whole train but they were not aware at the time that he was alone, besides none were armed and were compelled to hold up their hands, being covered a part of the time with two pistols.

One lady with two children gave all the money she had—$135 which was returned by the robber after being asked if it was all she had.

Christian Wahl, of Milwaukee, Wis., who is well known in Dahlonega, was on the train and handed over $100. He got on at Missoula, and therefore had not taken a berth. He was sitting in one of the sleepers dozing when he was awakened by the robber. His story of the highwayman's operations was as follows: "I was half asleep, when I was roughly punched in the ribs and a masked man shouted at me: 'Wake up, d—yon, and hurry up.' At the same time he thrust two pistols into my face with the peremptory demand, 'Give me your roll, d—yon, and give it up quick.' I had just $100 in an inside vest pocket, and could do nothing but give it to him. 'Now your watch,' said he, but I wore an old silver one and he did not want it. Then he went on to the others in the car. There was not a gun in the crowd. He took about $300 in our car, besides my $100, and one or two watches."

As we go to press it is thought that Mr. McAffee carried Dawson by about 150. White not heard from.

Last Friday Archie Kinawls had to be hanged twice at Clinton, N. C., before his neck was broken. The first time he hung by the neck ten minutes.

We are not afraid of being contradicted when we say that the Macon Telegraph is one of the best and most reliable papers published in the Georgia.

The new bell for the Dahlonega colored Baptist church has been received which will be put into position at an early day.

Uncle Sam is still very liberal allowing pensions, as this years pension roll is 40,645 additions with 4,699 restored, a total of 45,344.

Alderman Beutell, of Atlanta, has used the Constitution for $50,000, being damages claimed by cartoons and editorials in this paper against Mr. Beutell.

Nerve Food

If you have neuralgia, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will feed the nerve that is crying for food—it is hungry—and set your whole body going again, in a way to satisfy nerve and brain from your usual food.

That is cure. If you are nervous and irritable, you may only need more fat to cushion your nerves—you are probably thin—and Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will give you the fat, to begin with.

Cure, so far as it goes. Full cure is getting the fat, you need from usual food, and Scott's Emulsion will help you to that.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. 10 sizeable tests will show you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409-415 Third Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 5, 1900.

The Dahlonega public school is in a flourishing condition.

J. M. Brooksher now occupies his new store house.

Col. Baker visited Atlanta this week on a business trip.

Nunnally's fresh candies received every week at The Gurley Drug Company.

Miss Mattie Hoff, of Half Way, spent several days in the city this week with relatives and friends.

Those having any laundry for the Gainesville Steam Laundry can leave it at The Gurley Drug Co.

The stream of free liquor in Lumpkin county will now dry up until the elapse of about two years.

Always let us know when you fail to receive your paper promptly, so we can remedy the same if possible.

The present session of the N. G. A. College is attended by the largest number of students than at any other time for years.

There is money in advertising, especially when you put your ad. in the Nugget. All the people see it and read what's in it.

There was a good deal of free liquor used by some of the candidates in Dahlonega on last Monday, which resulted in Frank Crisson getting into the calaboose.

Last Monday some of the laborers discovered a mad dog down at the Yaholva bridge. But he had neither guns or pistols but put an end to it with their drills and hammers.

Howard McDonald, the fourteen year old son of Ferdinand McDonald, died here last Tuesday of typhoid fever after a short illness. The bereaved parents have our heartfelt sympathy.

John Jenkins has recently purchased some real estate in Dahlonega from Col. Price, the same being a short distance from Col. Price's residence where are long doubtless a new residence will be built by Mr. Jenkins.

Some changes have taken place in the clerkship at the Union Store Co. this week and the familiar faces of Eli Jones, Frank Adams and Will Vaughn are not seen behind the counters there any more. They will accept other jobs.

No doubt there was many a man who got so drunk in this county last Wednesday that he didn't know how he voted. The best of people use liquor on election day, yet it is a violation of law but no one has ever yet been prosecuted for it in this county.

Mrs. G. C. Wallace, of Dahlonega, received the sad intelligence of the death of her sister Mrs. Dora Edwards, nee Deek, which occurred in Dalton on the 28th ult. caused by consumption. Mrs. Edwards used to live in Dahlonega and this will be sad news to her many friends here.

W. H. McAffee got mad at the two articles in the last weeks Nugget from White county and demanded the authors name and by complying with the law by making an affidavit that he wanted it for the purpose of prosecuting the party for libel, was granted his request.

J. B. Witt, who has been the Consolidated Co's book keeper ever since their business was established, still holds the fort and is now general manager of the company's big store. With Mr. Witt's practical knowledge of business everything will be carried on successfully.

Our Dawsonville correspondent has something interesting to say elsewhere about the proposed rail road from Atlanta to Dahlonega. It is the route needed and would pay the investors the best money and if everybody along the line would put their shoulders to the wheel and all push together it will be built.

Prosperity is still the order of the day in Dahlonega and Lumpkin county.

Capt. Adams, president of the Consolidated Co., after a few days absence in the north has returned.

Brady, who was hurt down at the Hand recently is still in a bad fix but his leg has not yet been amputated.

Not long ago a man called at a lady's house and asked her to play a tune on a book case, thinking that it was an organ. He was so green the cows got after him and he is gone.

The chlorination plant down at the Hand run so short of wood that teams had to be kept busy all day last Sunday in supplying it. Those in charge who have been used to using coal cannot make the proper calculation when it comes to wood.

The last seen of old man Lindsey, the man who hid Mr. Wheelchels chicken away in a brush pile in a sack, he was leaving out in the direction of the Blue Ridge riding in a cart which also contained some empty jugs brought over a few days previous full of mountain dew.

David Patterson, of Hall county, who was to have had a trial in Dahlonega Saturday charged with stealing Wm. Ricketts little dog, waived examination and gave bond, and the matter will have to go before the jury, being the first case of this kind ever before the court of Lumpkin county.

Dock Shed, son of Joel Shed, of Walton county, died at Sheriff Davis' last Monday of typhoid fever after an illness of about four weeks whose remains were sent to his parents in Walton for interment that night. The deceased received the best of attention by Mr. Davis and his family up to his last moments. Dock was a kind hearted young man who made friends of every one he met.

Frank Rider has a shoulder that has been giving him a good deal of trouble, having been hurt at least three different times since we can remember. The first time he fell while acting on a gymnasium under the influence of moonshine, crushing this shoulder considerably. The second time he hurt it he was riding a bicycle, and last Monday night while roaming about in his sleep crushed it again in some way which he is unable to explain.

James London, of Arraria district received a severe cut on one of his legs last Monday while at work down at the Hand mine caused by the falling of a big rock. After receiving medical attention he was sent to his home where he could be properly cared for at the expense of the Consolidated Co. who rarely ever fail to care for any one hurt at their works. Mr. London came near dying some months ago from the effects of a sore leg which gave him much trouble, and this gash being on the same leg just below the sore, is going to add more pain. He is a poor man, who has no means of support only by his daily labor and when he gets sick it causes his family no doubt to be in needy circumstances.

One of the Crown Mountain hands, working up on the canal, got into a very dangerous fix the other day. The blasting party after getting several holes ready for the match, touched the fuse and yelled out "fire." This man took up the mountain side at almost break neck speed to a large tree he had spotted and on his way ran over a big rattlesnake which was stretched out near the root of the tree. There was no other place for him to reach before many tons of rock would fly through the air with the swiftness of a cannon ball. He was certainly in a fearful condition. If he ran farther the stones might hit him and if he remained the snake would almost be certain to bite him, but he decided to risk the snake for a companion, which crawled off when the rocks commenced falling and harmed no one.

Dahlonega's business is increasing every day.

Capt Hall has about completed his city improvements on his property opposite the NUGGET office.

The next thing many of the candidates will have to do now is to ask the Lord to pardon them for lying.

Col. and Mrs. Price left for Pike county this week where the Colonel goes to attend the Superior Court of that county.

Now that the election is over there will be no one to ask us "how is your family" until the next election, two years hence.

Another new store will open in Dahlonega about the 10th or 13th. Keep your eye on the NUGGET and you will find out whose it is.

Miss Mary Housley, daughter of J. B. Housley, of Dahlonega, was wedded last week in Atlanta to Louis Webb, of Macon, Ga.

Services are generally held at two different churches in Dahlonega every Sunday, and there is no excuse for any one not finding the way to heaven.

The hotel at Porter Springs was closed first of the week, which will cause most everything at this favorite resort to present a dull appearance until next season.

The love made by an old gray headed man to a woman the other night in Dahlonega caused a little kitten that was present to get sick and go off and die.

Having purchased the interest of H. D. Gurley I will continue the business at the same stand. The accounts of the Gurley Drug Company must be paid by Oct. 15th.

A petition, signed by many of the citizens, has been sent off to Gov. Candler this week asking him to grant Ned Moose and Laster Cavender a pardon, who were sent to the penitentiary some time ago charged with horse stealing.

The conveniences fixed up at Cane Creek Falls was intended for respectable people who wished to go and take a bath, but it has been a favorite resort for other classes, but chilly weather will soon be here which will bring all this fun to a close.

Elsewhere you will find the large advertisement of the Union Store Company, doing business in the Hall block. The Consolidating of the Consolidated and Hall Commissary stores makes it the largest and most complete stock of goods in Dahlonega, enabling them to supply the wants of all, and at prices that are sure to please their customers. Give them a trial. Polite and accommodating clerks will be found ready to wait upon you.

The chlorination plant down at the Hand mine is certainly a hot place and gives a good idea of the fiery region below spoken of by the ministers so often. It is being visited by many people every day and if some preacher would go down and start up a meeting it might be the means of the membership of his church to increasing and some people doing better by changing their manner of living now that the election is over. Who knows unless it is tried?

It is believed that there will not be enough business for the Superior Court to hold a full week the coming term. There is plenty of business for a two weeks term but it is not looked after. Under the law the grand jury can do as they please about prosecuting offenders. It is their duty as citizens to prosecute all violators of the law coming under their knowledge but of course not their sworn duty until they take the oath. In this way their friends violating the law go unpunished and their enemies catch the devil, after which the court house or jail is recommended to be repaired, some cross road reported to be in bad condition, (neither of which receive any attention) and the body adjourns without accomplishing anything and get their pay and go home happy.

Bear in mind that the devil will have no mercy on those who borrow their neighbors paper.

Dr. Ham and his wife, of Gainesville, was up this week a day or so the guest of Capt. and Mrs. F. W. Hall.

The several new buildings on the college campus, being built for the benefit of the students will all soon be ready for occupancy.

The money which has been used in the campaign just closed for liquor and other purposes to influence votes, would have been a great help to the many widows and orphans in this county had it been given to them.

We publish on our first page this week the list of offices in the United States which is visited every week by the NUGGET, showing that it is not read only by nearly everybody at home but is a welcome visitor to hundreds of households both far and near.

According to a recent ordinance passed by the city council all merchants selling dynamite are required to take the names of each and every person they sell dynamite to in Dahlonega. This is to prevent any one from purchasing it with the intention of doing any mischief.

We have been looking over the ordinances passed by the present council just printed and ready for distribution making about forty pages. There are many very important ordinances among the number while some are not worth the paper they are written on. Take the goose ordinance for instance. The goose ordinance prevents geese running at large within the fire limits which is a space of ground less than a quarter of a mile as follows: Commencing at McGuire's corner on Derrick street, thence to the corner of Choice street, thence west crossing Park and Chestnut streets until Water street is reached, thence up Water street crossing Main street to Warwick; thence crossing Hill and Market streets until the line reaches Derrick street to the beginning, which comprises all the center blocks of squares in the city. Who in the devil ever heard of such a law?—What damage could the geese do these blocks and square's? None of the members of the council surely think that there is any danger of the geese fanning a spark with their tails and catching some of these blocks a fire?

We have been honored with an invitation by a committee of the Dahlonega Temperance Union to deliver an address at the next meeting of the society, for which they will please accept our thanks. Though we will be compelled to decline as we were not cut out to perform any part of an orator. We used to try to memorize short speeches while a boy attending school to deliver on each Friday, but could never learn anything except "Twinkle, twinkle little star, how we wonder what you are. This the teachers allowed us to say all through our schoolboy days for each son realized that we could learn nothing else. Notwithstanding all this we were as much embarrassed the last time we delivered the star piece as we did at the first—every time turning both blind and dead, being so excited that we could not hear what we said even. We will never forget what one of our schoolmates—Albert Wheelchels, said to us one time after we had finished and was led off to our seat by him after we got so we could realize where we were at. Albert laughed and told us that our voice sounded like a choked goblin and that when he caught hold of us we were stooped over resembling a boy who had been eating green peaches. Now ladies and gentlemen, we feel confident that none of you wish a man to go before your society and get in this kind of a predicament, more especially when our old schoolmate is not here now to care for us. Besides our only speech—Little Star—would not be very appropriate for a temperance gathering.

If you want some nice, large and cheap pictures to beautify your parlor go to G. H. McGuffee.

Mrs. McKee, who has been sick quite awhile, is, we regret to say at this writing, very low, but we hope that a change will yet take place for the better.

One of the Minny's and West Waters had a fistfight out at Nimblewill district Wednesday. It was caused by an old grudge and two much election tonic. Nothing serious.

We are informed that since the arrival of the new Baptist preacher here the list of members of that church has been revised. So far no changes have been made in the other churches but may be later on.

The NUGGET office is the place to get all kinds of blanks and job work done cheap. We do not run our job press both "day and night" but work by day light which gives us a better chance to do the work neat and nice.

Two knock downs occurred in Dahlonega Wednesday. Hughes Moore struck W. B. Jones with a bottle and J. B. Anderson floored or grounded Henry Sparks. Both caused by difference of opinion about the best candidates.

Mrs. Strickland has just returned from Atlanta with the nicest and largest line of fall millinery goods every brought to this market. Now ladies, if you wish something pretty, durable and cheap call on Mrs. Strickland before it is too late.

Only three lockups occurred in Dahlonega Wednesday, being Joe Foster, Bob Satterfield and John Adams (Long Branch John) and a negro named Tom somebody. Tom got so full of the overjoyful that he cursed and pitched and got the tail of his shirt on the wrong side of his pants.

There is going to be a show here next Monday and everybody should stay away from it for fear some one attends who has been exposed to the scarlet fever, causing it to spread over the whole town and country. It appeared in the eastern portion of the county a short time ago which has proper management been kept from spreading and by still being cautious it can be stamped out entirely.

During the usually dull months we let our stock run a little low but in a short time now our store will be full again and many things are much lower, at our cash store, than the same can be had anywhere in this part of the state. A few straws will show which way the wind blows. 4 oz. machine oil 8c; good floor 60c; finest grade of white rice 75c; best cream cheese 18c; tuncups and saucers 35c per set; fine grade steel hand saw 48c and 62c., etc.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

It seems that the registrars of this county did not carry out one part of their duty by failing to notify parties whose names appeared on the insolvent list so as to allow any mistakes to be rectified, should there be any. This is mostly caused by appointing men to discharge this duty by proxy. It is always best to carry out the law strictly to a letter. Though we understand that some here were allowed to pay their taxes on the day of the election and vote, under the circumstances. Those on this list not coming to town didn't have this opportunity.

It is very sad for us to have to chronicle the very sudden and unexpected death of Geo. Chapman, Jr., known better as "Buddy" Chapman, which occurred in the lower part of this county last Wednesday morning about 6 o'clock caused by a falling piece of timber which struck him on the head just twelve hours previous while working at Birch Bro's boat. The piece was about 3x5, 15 inches long falling only a short distance. He was a good and faithful worker and had been in the employ of these gentlemen some six or eight years. He leaves a wife and eight children and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

The India Famine Relief.

Col. Price sent forward to Gov. Northern a few days ago his last collection for the India Famine Fund—being a check for $3.

In acknowledging the receipt of the check Gov. Northern writes to Col. Price as follows:

"As it will be some days before I have the report published, I write to acknowledge receipt in this way.

"The committee in New York just informed me that they will not make further collections in this state, because of the terrible disaster that has come to Galveston.

"I thank you most heartily, for the service you have rendered in this most worthy charity.

"Fraternally, etc.

Her Age.
It is not an ordinary lawyer who can overcome a woman's reluctance to tell her age. The Detroit Free Press reports one of many failures in that line of effort.

"And what is your age, madam?" was the attorney's question.

"My own," she answered promptly.

"I understand that, madam, but how old are you?"

"I am not old sir," with indignation.

"I beg your pardon, madam I mean how many years have you passed?"

"None; the years have passed me."

"How many of them have passed you?"

"All. I never heard of them stopping."

"Madam, you must answer my question. I want to know your age."

"I don't know that the acquaintance is desired by the other side."

"I don't see why you insist upon refusing to answer my question," said the attorney, coaxingly.

"I am sure I would tell how old I was if I were asked."

"But nobody would ask you, for everybody knows you are old enough to know better than to be asking a woman her age, so there."

And the attorney passed on to the next question.

Drunken Lawyer and Judges.
A melancholy illustration of the effects of liquor was given in one of the city courts not long since.

A lawyer of brilliant parts formerly Assistant District Attorney in the United States Court, and occupying several other positions, appeared drunk before the Recorder and attempted to defend a prisoner.

The Recorder said to him: "You are not now in a condition to defend the prisoner, who is accused of a serious offense. I adjourn the case until to-morrow and if your appearance before this court in such a condition again I will take other measures in dealing with you."

For the same cause a distinguished Judge was recently compelled to leave the bench.—REX.

THE DEAR CHILD.

Asked one Last Question and he Blow Almost Killed—

An Auburn lady tells us this story of the child who asks questions: He had been at it all day. From when the birds sang in the July morning to the hour when it became chilly under the awning, it had been "Papa this and papa that; papa, what makes the birds fly? What bird can fly the farthest? Who taught 'em? Why? Where does the grass go in winter? Who puffed the clouds? until every muscle in his father's tongue ached. Finally he could stand it no longer.

As relating it to another, he said: "Finally I rebelled. I was sick and tired and said to myself that duty to my offspring did not require me to answer any more questions and I wouldn't do it. I put him to bed. He hated to go; he had more questions that he wanted to ask. I was relentless, however, and I told him that I would not answer another question; no, not one. He went to bed fearful and I sat down to rest. Suddenly my heart smote me. Poor little chap. He couldn't help it; he was so curious, and as I thought all this my heart softened and I stole up to his bedside.

"He was awake. 'Hello, papa,' said he, 'Hello,' said I. I have come up to see you, son. You have been a good boy not to cry and you can ask me one more question, and only one."

"A look of delight swept over his face, and quick as a flash, as though the whole desire of life were centered in this bit of knowledge, he said, 'Papa, how far can a cat spit?'—Banger Commercial.

There are men who think they can sit under the sound of the gospel, the year long, and fail to pay the preachers, and yet be saved! They have neither more sense nor more religion than the fellow who considers it a great achievement to read a paper continuously, and never pay for it.—Sparta-Ismaelicit.

An exchange, unknown to fame thus gives its home undertaker a boost: "One of the pleasantest sights we have had in this town for a long time was the artistic manner in which John Griffin buried Bill Kurger, who died since our last issue. Mr. Griffin has his trade at his finger's end, and he handled our dead citizen with an ability that was startling in its originality. He was everywhere at once, weeping with the bereaved widow discussing crop prospects with the farmers, and soliciting business from the other attendants at the funeral. He will doubtless be able to get all the business in these parts. Before leaving for home he subscribed for this great weekly, paying one year in advance."

When a man keeps a store, a shop or an office, there is presumptive evidence that he wants custom; but when in addition, he advertises in the public newspapers that he is ready to do business, he issues a direct and particular invitation to the people to come to him and trade. Everybody has had experience with merchants and professional men who seemed to be reluctant to attend to patrons, if not resentful of their presence. Therefore, we all feel more free to go to the stores and offices of those who invite us day after day through the newspapers. Advertisements are assurances of welcome and attention.—REX.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 12, 1900.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

The scarlet fever has appeared in Cleveland, Ga.

There will be one negro and five populist representatives in the next legislature.

The postmaster and mayor of Jasper had a fight on the election day, originating about politics.

One of the democratic candidates informed us that the average cost of each of their candidates was about one hundred dollars.

J. H. Whitley killed his wife at Columbus, Ga., the other night by giving her carbolic acid through a mistake for ammonia.

A very destructive storm swept through Minnesota on the night of the 7th, killing nine persons at Biwabik. It cut a pathway 150 feet wide through the town.

The senatorial race in this district stands as follows: Mr. Castleberry carried White county by 21 votes and Mr. McAfee carried Lumpkin by 95 and Dawson 104, making his majority 178.

Ratification to amend the constitution so as to allow certain widows to draw pensions, carried at the last election. This shows that the people of Georgia have a kind feeling for old confederate soldiers and their widows.

Georgia is certainly a democratic state. The few heretofore populist counties have broken ranks mostly and gone back to the democrats. Candler has carried the state for governor by about seventy thousand majority.

White county's successful candidates: For Representative, J. W. H. Underwood. Ordinary, J. H. Freeman. Clerk, W. R. Power. Sheriff, W. A. Jackson. Tax Collector, J. C. Hood. Treasurer, D. T. Brownlow. Surveyor, J. J. McLean. Coroner, Soseby.

The result of the election shows that corn whiskey is a greater power in controlling votes than brandy. The democrats had corn and the republicans brandy in this county. Had both parties used the same kind of fluid there is no telling which side would have won.

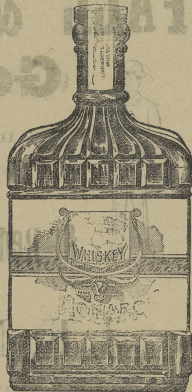

The following officers were elected in Dawson county: For representative, J. S. Bailey. Ordinary, B. Harbin. Clerk, G. M. Taylor. Sheriff, A. L. Roper. Tax Receiver, C. A. Vandiver. Tax Collector, S. M. Bearden. Treasurer, M. M. Gentry. Surveyor, W. J. Palmer. Coroner, A. J. Robinson.

A voters protective union is being organized in Glascock county for the purpose of settling the seal of condemnation upon the vote seller and still heavier upon the buyer. One should be organized in Lumpkin county for we understand that as high as five dollars were paid for votes in Dahlonega on election day.

Mr. H. P. Loveland, a lawyer of Peru, Indiana, was in Augusta, a few days ago. He has traveled all over the south getting up evidence in a suit brought in the United States court of Indiana, in which the American Manufacturing company, which is the Jute bagging trust, is the plaintiff. Mr. Loveland is an attorney for the defense and is collecting evidence by which he expects to prove that the Jute bagging company defrauds the Southern cotton planter out of thousands of dollars each year. He states that in each roll of bagging claimed to weigh 10 lbs. there is from 13 to 20 lbs. of brine which is sold to the farmer at the price paid per yard for the bagging. Mr. Loveland has offered to forfeit to any dealer one hundred dollars if he could find any roll of bagging that would not lose from 8 to 20 lbs., if exposed to the sun from three to five hours. A citizen of Texas has estimated that Texas alone has been paying $200,000 annually, for ten years, for salt water that went up in vapor.—Glascock Banner.

The Vote Catcher.

Below we present our readers with a picture of the vote catcher. It is small but mighty. Three dozen of these properly used in an election will gain more votes than forty speeches from the ablest men we have. It causes pain, misery and woe and people to rail and totter in their old age and yell about like panthers of the forest and lose self respect, but it is all right during elections. Both the church and people in general forgive them.

Lumpy Superior Court Postponed.

The following order from Judge Estes explains itself:

It appearing that the city council of Dahlonega have passed certain quarantine regulations whereby the citizens of a portion of Lumpkin county will be prevented from attending the Superior Court if held at the regular term beginning the 3rd Monday in October instant;

And it appearing that there is danger of scarlet fever becoming epidemic if said Court is held at said term;

And it appearing that owing to said city council at a meeting of the same have submitted a request that said court be adjourned;

It is accordingly adjudged that said court cannot be held at said regular time owing to unavoidable cause;

And the clerk of said court is hereby ordered to adjourn the same on said 3rd Monday October instant until the second Monday in December being the 10th day of December 1900;

Ordered further that all the business of said court be set over until said December 10, 1900, at which time the same shall come up to be disposed of in regular order; and that all jurors summoned to appear at said court, on said 3rd Monday in October instant be held to appear at said court on said 10th day of December 1900, to serve as such jurors and that all other persons having business in said court appear on December 10, 1900.

Ordered further that said clerk give notice of this order in compliance with the provisions of section 4348 of the Civil Code, and that this order be entered on the minutes of said court.

Done this 8th day of October, 1900. J. B. ESTES, J. S. C.

The following sensible and correct paragraph is clipped from the Rome Georgian: The law requiring the names of all the Superior Court judges and solicitors to be placed on election tickets throughout the State should be repealed. The length of the ballot makes it cumbersome, and the time required to count them makes it burdensome. Each district should be required to vote for its own judge and solicitor.

The dockets of the Supreme Court of Ga., were taken up the 1st. The total number of cases, criminal and civil, amount to 440. Of this number 135 were carried up on pauper affidavits.

Grade VII.—Willie Reese, Weir Gaillard, Elizabeth McAfee, Montie Moore.

Liquor at a number of the precincts on election day caused much trouble at several of them, which may result in one man's death. Even here in the city it caused men to get into trouble and have to pay out fines and the money needed by them and their families. But nothing can stop it.

Two brothers by the name of Hughes met here Tuesday for the first time in forty nine years. W. W. Hughes has been in Cal. for many years. He has not seen his home people in forty nine years until Tuesday when he met his brother, L. S. Hughes, of Dawson county this state. Mr. Hughes thinks of remaining in Georgia.—Ball Ground Caucasian.

Since June last diamond cutters in New York have been constantly at work on a stone which at that time arrived from the mines at Kimberly South Africa, and it will be several months yet before the work will be completed. This is the largest diamond in the United States and a number of wealthy women are said to be endeavoring to negotiate for its purchase. It will be worth $40,000.

A dinner recently given by the President of France to the Mayors of France, excels in size and in number of guests all banquets of modern or ancient times. The twenty-five thousand guest were served with victuals prepared by three thousand cooks. It was served by a force of eight thousand waiters, one-fifth of them being mounted on bicycles. The butlers used a hundred automobiles in directing the army of waiters serving tables which extended seven miles in length.

Nerve Food

If you have neuralgia, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will feed the nerve that is crying for food—it is hungry—and set your whole body going again, in a way to satisfy nerve and brain from your usual food.

That is cure. If you are nervous and irritable, you may only need more fat to cushion your nerves—you are probably thin—and Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil will give you the fat, to begin with.

Cure, so far as it goes. Full cure is getting the fat, you need from usual food, and Scott's Emulsion will help you to that.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York, 400 East Pearl Street, 30c and 50c, all druggists.

NOTICE.

Owing to various unavoidable causes it is ordered by J. B. Estes, presiding Judge, that the next regular term of Lumpkin Superior Court to be held on the third Monday in October, 1900, be and the same is hereby adjourned until the second Monday in December, it being the 10th day of December, 1900. All persons who are and all other persons having business in said court are hereby notified to be and appear at said court on the 10th day of December, 1900. This Oct. 10, 1900. G. C. WALLACE, C. S. DAYLONEGA, OCT. 12, 1900.

See tax collector's first annual elsewhere.

W. J. Burt's letter will appear next week.

Wilson Head is now clerking for J. E. Tate.

Rev. L. L. Landrum is now living at Dawsonville.

We are glad to state that Mrs. McKee, who has been very low, is on the mend.

The newly elected county officers are now on the hustle preparing to make their bonds.

W. H. Henley, of Ingleside, Ga., was up first of the week shaking hands with his numerous friends here.

P. H. Scott and lady left for their home in the west last Monday, and we trust that they will both reach there safely.

G. H. McGuire according to the instructions of the city council is moving his business home recently built back a few feet off of the street.

Messrs F. R. Adams of Delaware Ohio, and Hermann Miller and W. E. Matlock, of Toledo, are in the city looking over their mining interests here.

Mr. T. R. Blake moved to Cleveland, Ga., this week, where he goes to accept a position at a mine. Mr. Blake has much experience in this business and will give perfect satisfaction no doubt.

J. Phillips, Jr., after being in Dahlonega near three years returned to his home in Tennessee last Monday, at the regret of his many friends here, as he was liked by all who knew him.

In our last issue we stated that it was Webb who married Miss Mary Housley when it should have been Robb. We learn that Mr. Robb is a man that is well thought of both in Atlanta and Macon, who has a nice comfortable home in Macon and plenty of money.

Messrs. Chas. Lindenberg and John Siebert, well known business men of Columbus, Ohio, and prominent stockholders in the Consolidated Company are in Dahlonega looking over the property. They are well pleased with the development of the mines so far accomplished.

Hon. F. C. Tate and lady arrived in our city last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Tate stopped over and her husband went on the next day to Cleveland to deliver an address at that place. He intended making one here next week but as court was postponed he declined delivering it. Mr. Tate has no opponent but he wishes to keep the people awake to the interest of democracy.

A serious difficulty occurred at Chatsworth law ground on the day of the election between J. L. Ravan and Tom Henson and his two sons resulting in Ravan being hit on the head with a rock by all three of the Hensons which may yet prove fatal. The cause of the difficulty as we are informed is this: Some few years ago Ravan and Kirk Henson made blockade liquor together. After being in business awhile they dissolved copartnership and sometime afterwards Ravan's distillery was destroyed by the revenue officials. It was claimed by Ravan, so we learn, that Kirk Henson reported him casing a ball feeling to exist between the two parties every since, but never had any trouble that we know of until on the day of the election when they got to quarreling and Kirk Henson knocked Ravan down with a rock. Then old man Tom Henson ran up while he was down and hit him with another and his son Joe followed the example of his brother and father, until Ravan's head was crushed by the blows of each. Dr. Jones was sent for who went and dressed the wounds and has hopes of Ravan's recovery. It is certainly a very unfortunate affair. All three are gone.

When parties change their local addresses in cities they should let us know at once.

We will begin next week to give a picture and a little history of the different churches in Dahlonega.

At J. E. Tate's you will find Hot Stoves, pipes and elbows. Largest and nicest lot of stick candy in town and any kind of tobacco wanted.

We received a renewal from D. N. Hollifield last week from Shal-lee, Ga., who says that he can be put down as a life time subscriber to the Nugget.

Drs. Whelchel and Stow left last Saturday for Asheville, N. C., for the purpose of attending a medical association. It will certainly be a trip of much pleasure.

It is whispered that a certain married man of Dahlonega is trying to persuade a young girl to run away with him. Beware. Should the girl make this step it will be the worst days work she ever did in her life.

G. D. Bruce, the well known photographer, has his new gallery completed just above the Masonic Hall and is better prepared than ever to turn out all kinds of work in his line and upon short notice, having laid in a lot of the best material for the business that can be had. Prices reasonable.

It is a little strange to hear some women talk about it being a sin to attend a show, when at the same time a portion of whom are making love to some man every time their husbands' backs are turned. You can't fool this chicken. We have long since learned that all is not gold that glitters.

The candidates can look over the election returns on the first page and see from them that some body most certainly went back on them. Some people don't think that it is any more harm to tell a story about politics than a boy does when he goes to steal a watermelon—just so the owner or one interested don't catch up with them.

Rev. Alfred Reid, who we mentioned as going from this county to Africa a number of years ago spent last week in Dahlonega shaking hands with some of his old friends that were there when he left. We are always glad to have the visits of such able and distinguished divines in our midst, more especially when they are born and reared in old Lumpkin county, the garden spot of the world.

If every farmer and business man of Lumpkin county would follow the example of W. J. Burt there would be still more money in the country. When his wagon brings lumber or anything else to the city it never goes back empty. If he has nothing else to haul he will have a load of fertilizer carried back to enrich his land. This pays better than to lose the time to go to Gainesville after guano, saying nothing of the amount of money that is carried out of the county.

We were sent last Saturday by Mrs. Allen Calhoun one of the finest yam potatoes we have seen this season—weighing three pounds and three quarters, for which the lady will please accept our thanks. It is very nice to have friends who kindly remember an editor when having vegetables he loves so well as he does sweet potatoes. In eating this potato made into a slice pie it reminded us of years gone by when we attended campmeeting for no other purpose than to eat slice potato pie.

Hiram Smith and Jack Walton, who reside in the lower part of this county, are going to leave for a different clime. They picked the entire blackberry crop of that whole section, so it is said. The former quit his crop and it is claimed between the two didn't leave enough berries for any one else to make a pie. But those who had no pies then now have plenty of corn which is much more profitable than the wine that was made from the berries, saying nothing of the trouble caused by wine.

R. W. Walker spent a few days in Cherokee county last week.

There are many cases of scarlet fever in Shoal Creek and Wahoo districts and a number of deaths have occurred from it—all being children.

Mr. Packard, of Turkey Hill, returned from across the Blue Ridge last Saturday where he had been to look after some mining interests which he has over there.

The country people took the Nugget's advice any stayed away from the show, at least the most of them did—not more than two or three dozen coming to town even.

A colored member of the church was grumbling the other day because "de white folks" wouldn't let them have any camp meeting. He said negroes wouldn't take the scarlet fever.

There is not a single case of scarlet fever in Dahlonega not hasn't been. Should it or any other contagious disease appear here the Nugget will not keep it concealed from you.

Horseback riding has gotten to be quite a favorite pleasure for many of Dahlonega's young ladies. Some ride very graceful while others are less attractive as far as riding is concerned.

The lemonade man did well here this week at the show. Two boys who had never tasted any real lemonade made up in an old foot tub-drunk five glasses each to one sitting. This much toe nail soup may prevent them from taking any contagious disease.

The Nugget is liked by the people in the north as well as in the south, judging from what W. G. Mickle, of Columbus, Ohio, says. In renewing his subscription this week he writes us as follows: "Send me your paper for another year. I can't get along without it."

Marshal Harbison arrested four or five persons Monday for coming across the quarantine line, but the mayor pro tem let them off without a fine by them claiming that they didn't know or understand it. Afterwards a man was put out on the road and no misunderstanding can be made hereafter.

One member of the church who was given a jug of liquor to carry to a certain law ground for electioneering purposes didn't carry out his instruction. He left it at home where it will last longer, furnishing him a dram for many mornings to come. What a nice thing it is to be so thoughtful.

We heard some students grumbling about their cabbage not being greasy enough where they were board. This is caused by the advance in the price of meat. Stringy people only put a certain number of cents worth of bacon into a pot of cabbage and if the price was to double the cabbage would only receive half enough grease.

As stated elsewhere the city council met on Saturday night and quarantined against the eastern portion of the county on account of so many cases of scarlet fever in that section of the country, and on Monday morning councilman McGuire was the first one to violate the law by sending his son through that way with a wagon to Gainesville. Can't expect the people to abide by a law that is violated by one who helped to make it.

That scamp who goes by the name of Ollie Jones and deserted his wife some weeks ago, has been heard from again. He is now at work on the big tunnel in Union county. This leads us to believe that the devil is dead, for surely if he was alive he would have long since snatched this runaway into that hot place in store for all such imitations only of men. Later—the scamp came in on Wednesday and his wife left with him, notwithstanding he carried a bottle of liquor in one pocket and a pistol in the other. How foolish women are.

Wonder what the new pastors of the churches here thought of some of the pillars of the churches on election day?

The colored people will not have their camp meeting a few miles above Dahlonega this year on account of so many cases of scarlet fever over in the Western portion of the county.

There came near being a sensation in Dahlonega some days ago caused by a man catching another one kissing his wife, which made the wife's husband mad. How easy some people are to get mad.

Col. H. P. Farrow informed us by telephone yesterday that all the revenue cases in the U. S. Court in Atlanta, from Lumpkin county have been put off until late in November, which will be good news to all parties interested.

On account of the many cases of scarlet fever in the eastern part of the county, and to prevent its spreading to Dahlonega, the city council met last Saturday night and ordered a quarantine against all that portion of the county. Any one violating this law themselves liable to pay a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $50.

Two different Baptist Associations were in session in this county last Sunday, and doubtless both passed strong temperance resolutions during their sessions, being carried quite likely without a dissenting voice. Was a good time to carry it into effect as some of the members stomachs present that were a little out of order from the effects of an overdose of liquor used during the campaign just closed—some of them gray headed. We judge from what we saw.

An ordinance says that the city tax book shall close and if it issues on the first day of October but no notice was given through the columns of the Nugget and but few people were aware of the fact and not more than one-eighth of them have paid and the books have not been closed yet. We hope that every member of the council will leave off all prejudice when it comes to business and not be so elated first as to try to knock the newspaper out of a few nickles just for spite, thus causing the tax payers to pay out much cost.

The forty odd pages of the ordinances of the city of Dahlonega make a right nice pamphlet but there is no date or anything else to show when they were approved or what time they went into effect. Neither is there a single ordinance in the entire book placing a tax on dogs and shows which have been collected on them this year. Besides this deficiency we notice one ordinance making it a penalty for any one to intrude on the sidewalks, by porches, railings, signs, etc. At least two of the present council are guilty of one or more of these ordinances, and it can't be expected for these laws to be carried out until those making them self violating themselves.

On Sunday after the city council had quarantined against the eastern portion of the county on account of the scarlet fever, two parties came into the city after a coffin. Both were arrested by Marshal Harbison and carried before Mayor pro tem Ingersoll, but were let off without being fined because they claimed that they could not read the notices that had been posted up the morning previous. One of the parties got very mad, and said that he would never bring another apple, peach or any kind of produce to Dahlonega. It is a little strange that some people are so foolish as not to care who else catches a disease after they take it and are fortunate enough to get well of it. Such feeling as this is what causes contagious diseases to spread. A young lady, upon being forced to return to her home the other day who had been exposed to the fever, said that the town people had just as well have the scarlet fever as the country people. This is a wrong view.

See sheriff and other legal sales in this issue.

We are sorry to learn that the scarlet fever has broke out in Dock Hope's family at Gainesville.

Some are sorry that the present term of Lumpkin Superior Court has been postponed while others are proud.

A. S. Whelchel, of New Bridge, paid our city a visit last Wednesday and as usual called around at the Nugget office and renewed his subscription.

We regret to learn of the death of J. H. Allen, a younger brother of Joseph Allen, of Dahlonega, which occurred at Brewerton, S. C., last Sunday.

We didn't go to the show last Monday, but our office, devil did, and we have been getting information of what occurred all the time since free of charge.

Thos. J. Smith, of Porter Springs, has purchased the stock of goods of J. M. Brooksher in Dahlonega and will move here and go into business first of November.

Last Wednesday W. P. Thomas of this county, sold his asbestos mine to S. M. Coleman, known as the iron bridge builder who has constructed every one that has been built in this county yet.

Some beautiful fancy parter lamps are to be seen in B. K. Meaders & Sons show window and the price is low. They will have a good line of winter underwear next week at greatly reduced prices.

Sheriff Davis has been confined to his room by sickness most of the time since the election. Had he been defeated we could have told the trouble, but as it is it will close a deal with John Springs for his valuable water power some 12 miles North of this place. The purpose of purchasing this water power is to get a sufficiency of water to supply the gold fields east of Dawsonville in Lumpkin and Dawson counties.

We understand that a certain young man bottled up a lot of horns and carried them to Bethlehem church the other Sunday to turn loose in the congregation but fortunately for him he took a second thought thereby saving him from going to the chaise-gang.

G. H. McGuire has just received the largest and nicest lot of watches and jewelry every brought to Dahlonega, and many other things usually kept in a jewelry store. The prettiest and cheapest old fashioned pictures you ever saw any where. Go and see them.

Mr. Wm. McGee, of Shoal Creek district, informed us yesterday morning that the scarlet fever report in the eastern portion of this county has been greatly exaggerated. He says that he would take a Bible oath that there is not a single case within five miles of his house, but states that there are a few cases down near to Wahoo. Mr. McGee is a responsible gentleman as every one in Lumpkin knows and what he says can be relied on.

We see from the list of the members of the senate and house of the Georgia legislature just elected that one of the senators and four representatives are old Dahlonega college boys. Being W. H. Cobb from the 31st and R. F. Quillian, of Hall; R. E. A. Hamby, of Rabun; Col. C. J. Wellborn, Jr., of Union, and Col. J. W. H. Underwood, of White, and maybe others that we do not know. It is certainly encouraging to every friend of the N. G. A. College to see her old students hold such honorable positions as these.

We understand that a certain fellow went to Pleasant Ridge church last Sunday so drunk that he could scarcely stand alone. One of the brethren who had a kind feeling for the one who used to belong to that church and had fallen from grace, (that is if he ever got there), went out and carried him in and placed him down in a lying position with his heels turned up to a portion of the congregation, giving the minister a good subject as well as the next grand jury. People should not go to church drunk, but if the congregation doesn't care we don't.

Mining Notes.

Work is still progressing by all the operators down on the Calhoun property.

Mr. Packard keeps prospecting going on down at Turkey Hill and the shows are excellent and very encouraging to the old gentleman, which puts new life in him, causing him to throw away his stick and move about like a sixteen year old boy.

Prof. B. M. Hall while in Dahlonega last Sunday informed us that he was still busy every day surveying the big ditch which is to convey water from streams in Dawson county to the celebrated Briar Patch property in this county, which will require some time yet to complete its survey. The canal is three feet wide in the bottom and large enough to furnish all the water necessary to work this celebrated mine and a good deal to spare to other parties needing water for mining purposes.

The new superintendents down at the Hand have made such changes as they deemed necessary for the interest of the company and everything is moving along at this mine like clock work—all unnecessary expenses having been done away with, and from the way it looks now the time will not be long until a dividend is declared. Much prospecting work is being done and all other operations are moving along without a moment's delay. The chlorination plant is turning out good results.

Dr. T. R. Cravens, of Chicago, Ill., and Col. W. S. Huff, of Dahlonega, spent Friday and part of Saturday last week in Dawsonville. Their mission was, and did, close a deal with John Springs for his valuable water power some 12 miles North of this place. The purpose of purchasing this water power is to get a sufficiency of water to supply the gold fields east of Dawsonville in Lumpkin and Dawson counties. The survey of this proposed ditch is now being made, and are long dirt will be broken in its construction. Besides the Springs creek there are others that will be picked up—in all a sufficiency to make near four thousand miner's inches of water, which will require a very large ditch to carry. The building of this ditch means much for this section and Dawson county, and our citizens, whose lands it will run through, should give the enterprise all the encouragement and right-of-way required for the canal. We wish the enterprise much success.—Advertiser.

The development work on the Crown Mountain property is moving along as usual with good results. The new discovery, mentioned in these columns on the 28th ult., is proving to be a very valuable one. The prospector estimated the vein when first struck to be worth about $50 per ton. An assay, the report made by a disinterested party this week, which we saw ourselves, shows the ore to be worth $265.85 per ton. This, like all other veins in this country, grows richer and larger as it is followed. When first discovered under the crust of the earth the pay streak was only eight inches in size. Now at a depth of twelve feet it is two feet large. This alone makes a good gold mine but when there are hundreds of rich veins on the property, fifty of which have already been discovered, makes it much better, causing its owners to rejoice at the thought of possessing such a big bonanza. It will only require a little more prospecting to prove that Crown Mountain is one of the richest gold mines in the United States—yes, we would be safe in saying in the world. President Warner of the company, was here this week in company with his son-in-law, whose name we have forgotten, and after inspecting the mine the General remarked that it grew in magnitude every time he went on the property. The pole line is completed, the lumber for the mill is practically all in and the machinery is being received, and the erection of the mill will begin at once.

He was a freckled faced, foxy looking boy of 18 or 14 years, and not more than about half as big as he ought to be, but he was mirthy and his eyes were clear. The proprietor of the store was in his office when the boy entered.

"Do you want a boy here?" asked the youngster, with confidence. "What do I want with a boy?" replied the proprietor, with an intent to have fun with his visitor.

"I don't know," was the unabashed response. "I guess they have boys around stores sometimes, and I thought you might want one."

"Well, since you have mentioned it, I do."

"What kind of a boy do you want?"

The proprietor looked him over with a more or less suspicious eye.

"I want a good boy," he said slowly.

"Then I won't do," said the youngster.

"Why won't you? Are you a bad boy?"

"Um-um-er," hesitated the caller. "I'm just a boy, that's all. There's something wrong with 'em when they're good."

He started out, when the proprietor called him back.

"Hold on," he said. Maybe you are what I want."

"If you want a good thing, I'm fit," said the boy, "and you won't have to push me along, either."

"How much do you want?"

"I want a million, but I'll take $3 a week."

"When can you begin?"

"This very minute, if you'll give me my supper. I haven't had anything to eat for three weeks."

"Nothing to eat for three weeks?" exclaimed the proprietor.

"Nothing fit. I've scraped along as best I could, but I haven't had a square meal with pie on the side."

"All right, you shall have your supper. And where will you sleep?"

"Oh, I won't sleep at all. I'm going to stay awake of nights when I ain't busy, so I can feel how good it is to have a job and get money in my clothes. Holly gee, there's a kid out there trying to get away with a piece of leather. Let me crack him once."

And the new employee dashed out after the offender.—Washington Star.

In a New York Police Court the other day a Boston man who had been arrested at the instance of his wife on the charges of desertion and non-support presented a novel defense. He alleged that his wife had consulted an astrologer, who told her that she was destined to be married at least twice. "I was her first husband," said the accused man, "and I saw that it was up to me to get a move on. I had to either die or skip again, and I preferred to skip." The Court, however, declined to follow that line of reasoning, and put the man under bonds to support his wife, regardless of the astrologer's horoscope.

NERVOUSNESS, An American Disease.

Dr. S. W. MITCHELL is authority for the statement that nervousness is the characteristic malady of the American nation, and statistics show that nerve disease number one-fourth of all deaths recorded, the mortality being mainly among young people.

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLE.

Is the grand specific for this great American disease, because it goes straight to the source of the weakness, building up health and strength by supplying rich, abundant food and pure blood to the worn-out tissues, rousing the liver to activity and regulating all the organs of the body.

The One Day Cold Cure.

For colds and sore throat use Kern's Cherry Laxative Quinine, the "One Day Cold Cure."

Almighty God, who inhabits eternity, what are we that Thou art mindful of us. We are filled with self-contempt; we look upon our days and they are few, upon our strength and it is consumed before the moth; yet are we great in Thy sight because of Thy love. Thou art seeking something in us which we have not found in ourselves. It is God that worketh in us. This we feel by many an impulse, by many a high desire, by many a prayer that cannot find words for fit expression. Continue Thy ministry in our hearts; lead us in Thy truth and teach us. Enable us to bear the frets and vexations, the chafings and disappointments of life like the sons of God, Whose vision being filled by eternity can take but brief note of time. Magnify Thy grace in us, we beseech Thee; may it be more than sufficient to sustain us under every burden and in the endurance of every pain. Undertake for us in all conflict, difficulty, poverty, sleeplessness and danger of every name and kind. Lead, into Thy house, we beseech our spirits. As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so be round our tempted souls. Amen.—Anonymous, in Atlanta Constitution.

APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

Ge. 1st. Lumpkin County.

To the Superior Court of said county.

The petition of Frank L. Murray, T. R. Cravens and T. R. Cravens, all of Cook county, state of Illinois, shows as follows:

1. That they desire for themselves, their associates, successors and assigns to become incorporated under the name and style of The Murray Hill Mining Company.

2. The term for which petitioners seek to be incorporated is twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the end of that time.

3. The capital stock of the corporation is shares of ten dollars each. The whole of the capital stock of Five Million Dollars has already been paid in.

4. The object of the proposed corporation is pecuniary profit and gain to its stockholders and especially carrying on the business of mining operations, mining for gold and other metals, buying and selling real estate, building and operating railroads, highways, flumes, flume lines, tracts of water and lateral ditches, etc., may be necessary for operating their mining business.

5. They desire to carry on and conduct a general merchandise business for the purpose of supplying their employees and the public with goods, wares and merchandise, to buy and sell real estate and personal property and to do all such acts and things and exercise all such powers as are necessary and useful in carrying on and conducting the business of mining, merchandising and dealing in real estate.

6. They desire as such incorporation to have derived to use and be used, to have and use a common seal, to make and prescribe such by-laws and regulations for its government as may be needed and proper and not inconsistent with the laws of the state of Georgia and the United States, to constitute and elect a board of directors and such other officers as may be named by such by-laws, rules and regulations and they further desire all such rights and privileges and powers as are incident to corporations of like character.

7. They desire the right to contract for, lease, buy and own such real estate as may be needed and proper in the conduct of their business and to lease, mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of the same. To execute bonds or other evidences of indebtedness as may be needed for the corporation and its board of directors may direct.

8. The principal office of the said corporation will be in the town of Auraria, county of Lumpkin and state of Georgia, and petitioners further ask to have such offices within or without the state of Georgia as may be determined and fixed by the stockholders of said corporation, as officers and that a charter be granted them containing the rights, privileges and powers herein set out and petitioned for.

RUPE H. BAKER, Petitioner's attorney.

Clerk's Office Superior Court, Lumpkin County Georgia.

I, G. C. WALLACE, Clerk Superior Court in and for said county do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy of the application of the petitioners of The Murray Hill Mining Company as shown to me by the said petitioners on the 28th day of September, 1908.

THE Crown Mountain Gold Mining & Milling Co.

The Crown Mountain properties are situated in the very heart of the Georgia gold belt and is in the radiating center of all the leading gold veins of the Dahlonega district. They embrace what is believed to be the mother lode of the Appalachian Range.

The extensive and rich ore bodies in sight upon these properties assure long continued mining operations and the inevitable increase of the permanent and increasing value of the stock of "The Crown Mountain Co."

The projectors of this company were the first to revive the mining interest in this district in 1896. After three years of careful and exhaustive examination of all the mines of the district of reputation as gold producers, and they had the choice of all, they selected the Crown Mountain combination as the ideal gold mine of the district which would yield or produce the most gold with the least expense. This opinion is shown by all the mining engineers, mining experts, miners and citizens of any standing in the district who are familiar with the properties. As an evidence of this we here state that more of the citizens of the town of Dahlonega and vicinity have taken stock in this company than have in all the other companies combined that have organized in this district.

The company is to be managed by practical business men—who have given much of their time to mining and mining operations, and always with unvarying success.

The present directors, is for the most part composed of men who have had much experience in the mining enterprises, and under its efficient and economical management, and by reason of a visible gold supply that is practically inexhaustible, an investment in the stock of this company is undoubtedly safe.

The capitalization of the company is not commensurate with the visible productiveness of the properties and is meagre compared with the capitalization of other justly celebrated mines in the district, but the management believe it will be able to make the stock worth above par.

We invite all prospective investors to make a personal inspection of the mines. We also invite them to examine all the other mines in the district—compare the quality and quantity of the ore and the facilities for economically treating the same. We have no fears of where the choice will fall.

Until further notice of advance in prices, the stock of this company will be sold at the minimum rate of 50.00 per share. For further information apply to J. F. or J. H. Moore, Dahlonega, Ga., or Donovon & McCabe, 10 & 12 West Spring Street, Columbus, Ohio, or Gen. Warren, Marietta, Ohio.

THE DAHLONEGA BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptist Church of Christ at Dahlonega.

This is the name the Baptist people, who met in Dahlonega on the first day of September, 1838, chose to be known, as a church so long as the church itself stood. Some of these people had been assembling at Kinzey's Creek, a few miles of the town, where, on the second day of March, 1835, they had constituted a church. Under the leadership of Rev. Wm. Kinzey they moved to the town of Dahlonega in 1838. Mr. Kinzey was long a citizen of the town, filling the office of clerk of the church for many years. He was the first pastor of the church when it was at Kinzey's Creek, but he was never the pastor in town, though he often preached. Rev. Thos. M. Kinzey was for a time the pastor in town, though he was not a resident of the place.

The rules of Decorum adopted by these early Baptists have remained substantially the same for more than half a century. Their articles of Faith and practice remain unchanged. These are given in order that our readers may know what these earnest, zealous people really believed and still practice. They are embraced in 12 short paragraphs:

"1. We believe in one Living and True God—Father, Son and Holy Ghost—one in Power and Glory.

"2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God, and Only True Rule of Faith and Practice.

"3. We believe in the Doctrine of Original Sin.

"4. We believe in Man's impotency to recover himself from the Fallen State he is in by his own Free Will and Ability.

"5. We believe in the Doctrine of Election through Sanctification of the Spirit and Belief of Truth.

"6. We believe that Sinners are Justified in the Sight of God only by the merits of Christ.

"7. We believe that the Saints will persevere in Grace, and not finally fall away.

This church was a missionary church from the beginning. It discountenanced drunkenness, Sabbath breaking, gambling, lying and social evils. Its minute books show a great many trials of members for wrong-doing, especially for drunkenness, for the land then, as now, suffered from the making and using of liquor. Barrooms were on every corner, while gambling places were seen in the early times of the town, on the public streets and side-walks.

The Baptists of Dahlonega were always in favor of Sabbath Schools, and when the Union Sabbath School, established mainly by the Presbyterians, was discontinued, the Baptists have kept up a Sabbath School ever since of their own.

It has likewise always been a Missionary church. It had "arms" both for white and colored people in town and country. For many years, the church, in town was opposed by many of the country churches because of its advanced views on missions, temperance, Sunday Schools and secret societies. When the country churches were expelling members for joining the Sons of Temperance, Masons and other secret societies, the Dahlonega church passed this resolution: "Resolved, That the adding and joining any benevolent institution shall be no cause of grief, or division in this church."

As early as 1844, the church was connected in some form or other with the Baptist State Convention. Whenever an association to which it belonged ceased connection with the State Convention it took immediate steps to go to some other body which did affiliate with the Convention.

The church has had its times of revival as well as times of depression. It has had some strong men in its pulpit. Some have come and gone without doing any appreciable good. After using the original building for more than fifty years the people went about to build a new edifice, with more room and one more comfortable at all seasons.

The new church building is located in the center of the city almost, on the corner of Maple and Chestnut Streets. It is a brick structure and will seat about 400 people. The engraving which we print in this issue is a fairly good representation of the building which cost about $1,200. In order to protect the house from fire, a vacant lot adjoining has recently been added by the building committee, which will be put in grass, shrubbery and flowers during the coming fall and winter.

The corner stone of the church was placed on the morning of July 17, 1897, and the house was dedicated, though not finished, in October, 1897.

Rev. Frank O'Kelley, a graduate of Mercer University, has recently been called to the pastorate of the church recently. He is young, ardent and zealous in the cause of Christ. He was reared within a few hours' travel of the church, and is widely known throughout North-east Georgia. His acceptance of the call, and the readiness with which he has entered upon his work, bespeak good things, for "the man and the cause."

SHERIFF'S SALES.

Georgia—Lumpkin County. Will be sold, on the first Tuesday in November 1900 at public outcry at the court house door in the city of Dahlonega, within the legal hours, of sale, to the highest bidder for cash, the following property to-wit:

Lots of land numbers eighty-five, eighty-six, one hundred and eight, one hundred and nine, all in the North half of the thirteenth district and first section of Lumpkin county, Georgia, each lot containing forty acres, more or less. Said property levied on as the property of E. J. Castleberry, to satisfy an execution issued from the Justice's Court of the 821st District, G. M., said county in favor of the First National Bank of Gainesville Ga. against E. J. Castleberry; said execution now proceeding for the use of G. McGuire and C. H. Jones, transferees of said First National Bank of Gainesville, Georgia; said property being now in the possession of E. J. Castleberry. Levy made and returned to me by R. T. Hardin, L. C.

J. M. DAVIS, Sheriff.

NOTICE.

Owing to various unavoidable causes it is ordered by J. B. Estes, presiding Judge, that the next regular term of Lumpkin Superior court to be held on the third Monday in October, 1900, be and the same is hereby adjourned until the second Monday in December, it being the 10th day of December, 1900. All jurors, witnesses and all other persons having business in said court are hereby notified to be and appear at said court on the 10th day of December, 1900. This Oct. 9, 1900. G. C. WALLACE, C. S. Healthy Mothers
Few mothers are healthy, because their duties are so exacting. The anxiety of pregnancy, the shock of childbirth, and the care of young children, are severe trials on any woman. But with Wine of Cardui within her grasp, every mother—every woman in the land—can pay the debt of personal health she owes her loved ones. Do you want robust health with all its privileges and pleasures? Wine of Cardui will give it to you.

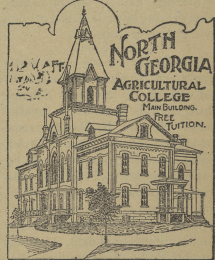

WINE OF CARDUI
strengthens the female organs and invigorates weakened functions. For every female ill or weakness it is the best medicine made. Ask your druggist for $1.00 bottle Wine of Cardui, and take no substitute under any circumstances.

Mrs. Edwin Cunn, Ogden, Utah. "When I commenced using Wine of Cardui I was hardly able to walk across the house. Two weeks after I walked half a mile and picked strawberries. When my other child was born I lost my appetite for 24 hours, and had to raise him on a bottle because I had no milk. After using the Wine of Cardui regularly this time, I gave birth last month to a baby girl, and was in fairly good shape, with her little pin, and I have plenty of milk. For this great improvement in my health I thank God and Wine of Cardui."

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 19, 1900.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

The state fair begins at Valdosta Oct. 29th and will continue until Nov. 4th, to which we have received a complimentary ticket but will not be able to attend.

Dr. G. W. Gardner, of Atlanta, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 or twelve months in the chain-gang by Judge Calhoun recently for performing a criminal operation on a young woman from Alabama.

Towards the last of the campaign in this county politics got so warm as to cause brothers who were on opposite sides of the political fence, to fall out and now don't speak to each other. This is certainly a bad state of affairs.

Near two hundred moonshiners have already pleaded guilty in the U. S. court this term to violating the law and are now eating free hash at Fulton county jail and other prisons. Quite a number will have to take their Christmas turkey in prison.

The office of inspector of illuminating oils for the district of Atlanta, which has been vacant since the resignation of Inspector J. P. Atkins some days ago, was filled recently by the appointment of Frank Weldon, whose commission from the state holds until October 1, 1902.

At the Paris exposition the United States received the highest number of awards of any nation save France. She received more gold medals, more silver medals more bronze medals and more "honorable mentions," than any other nation and more grand prizes than any other nation with the exception of Germany.

The Republican at Jasper, Ga., has suspended. Its publication was resumed June 1st with the hopes that the republican officers would be elected who would give it their support, but democrats were successful. The Republican was certainly a new paper when it was alive and made politics warm but it has lived its season out like the katadid and disappears at the first approach of cold weather.

A Boston firm proposes to build an electric railway from Clarksville, Ga., to Nacoochee Valley, in White county, Ga. The firm proposes to furnish three-fourths of the capital necessary to construct the road if the citizens will contribute one fourth. We hope that it will be built and then maybe when it gets as near Dahlonega as Nacoochee Valley there will be a chance to get it extended on down to our city.

On the 6th of November the congressional election takes place, at which time the people of the 9th Congressional District are asked to vote for Hon. F. C. Tate again. He has no opposition and didn't have before the primary which speaks well of the gentleman. He has made us as good a representative as could be sent, and one thing in particular we like Mr. Tate because he never forgets the people of Dahlonega and Lumpkin county whenever a favor is asked of him by a citizen of either.

Bro. Craig, of the Gainesville Eagle, who is personally acquainted with W. H. McAfee, Senator elect, has this to say of the gentleman: "Hon. W. H. McAfee, senator elect from the 32nd district, called to see us yesterday. He received a majority of 178 in the district, composed of Lumpkin, White and Dawson. His majority in Lumpkin was 95—over Castleberry the Scraphile candidate, who was supported by the Populists, Republicans, Disgruntlers, and odds and ends generally. Lumpkin does herself honorably when she sends such men as Hamp McAfee to the lawmaking bodies." Bro. Craig used to belong to the Disgruntler's brigade during Emory Spear's campaign and he knows pretty well how to judge.

Mining Notes.

An act of the last legislature approved Dec. 20, 1899, makes it a misdemeanor for any one buying gold, bullion, gold dust, gold nuggets, or gold amalgam in this state, who fails to make a quarterly report of the same to the respective ordinaries four times a year.

Capt. Ingersoll and some five or six other gentlemen, are shipping a carload of ore from the Knight cut to Fort Wayne, Ind., to be tested by machinery invented by a Mr. Hix, who claims that it will save practically all the gold from ore, which, if it does, will be considerably cheaper than any machinery yet invented. If it proves successful this party of gentlemen will make a purchase and go to using it.

Four Ductown miners came over last week to show the Georgia miners how to run an air compressed drill down at the Hand. They worked two days and the Georgia miners nearly doubled them in drilling and the Tennesseans returned home. This is often the case. Western and other miners come to learn the Georgians how to mine and before staying here long gain much valuable information themselves. The native miners' knowledge of the different gold belts give him much the advantage over strangers, which the Consolidated Co. is beginning to realize.

A special from Chattanooga, Tenn., of the 10th inst., appearing in some of the daily papers has this to say about a shipment of gold that was made from Dahlonega, which will be read with interest by gold miners as well as all others feeling an interest in this big enterprise and the country generally. It says: "Heavy shipments of gold from Dahlonega are being made to the general government mint at Charlotte, N. C., through this city. One pig sent through this week weighed eighteen pounds and was worth $5,000. A portion of the stamps in the 120 stamp mill are now running steadily and the clean ups show that the percentage of gold is greater than had been expected."

Mr. Catchings, who is to have the installation of the electric plant of Crown Mountain Company, arrived in our city last Sunday, who proceeded to business at once, in pursuance of the plans of Westinghouse company furnishing the same. Mr. Catchings will also do the assay and chemical work required by the company and will direct in putting up the wire. A furnace for assaying purposes will be erected at once. Mr. Ford, an experience mill builder, has probably reached the city by this time, who will direct the construction of the same. The Crown Mountain Company is carrying on its work on business principles—making economical expenditures—though never failing to secure experienced men in any kind of work necessary to be done, matters not where they come from or how far off they live. Men moving in this cautious manner are bound to succeed.

Quite a large number of hands in the employ of the Consolidated Co., have been thrown out of work since our last issue caused by a decrease of work by the same, all out of employment except about forty or fifty hands. Work has been suspended on the Blue Ridge tunnel and every thing at the mine has stopped except underground work. The chlorination plant has stopped for want of sulphur and soon the mill will have to cease moving until the underground mining is farther advanced. The eight hour system has been adopted so as to push the work without ceasing. Really the company has just commenced running the mine economically and in a business manner. No doubt too much ginger cake work has been done heretofore to suit many of the stockholders, causing them to feel sore when having nice graded roads, street lamps put up a mile from the mine and a costly hotel, and neither in use.

The coal strikers in Pennsylvania will accept ten per cent advance.

Quite a number of miners and capitalists are in the city as we go to press.

Rev. Sam Jones, the well known Georgia evangelist, is quite ill, having been compelled to cancel all his engagements.

Over $50,000 in cash pledges and property were realized for the support of the missions and mission alliance for the coming year in New York, last Sunday.

The Southern Interstate fair in Atlanta is being well patronized, and will be a success. Atlanta knows no such word as fail in anything she undertakes.

Wilson Head, who has been under treatment of a physician for a long time, took suddenly sick last Wednesday and it was expected that he would die for awhile but he is a little better now.

For SALE.—1 cook stove $4.00.
1 heating stove, wood burner, $2.50.
1 kitchen table 7x8 1/2 feet 75c.
1 bed shed $1.50.
1 child's walnut bed with sides, 34x54 feet, including two cotton mattresses and springs, $5.00.
1 set new bed springs woven wire, $2.00. Call at J. R. Palmers, next door to W. H. Jones' store.

The following is good advice to young men: "My son, follow not in the footsteps of a loafer and make example of him who is born tired, for verily I say unto you their business is overstocked, the seats on the whittling places are all occupied. It is better to saw wood at two bits a cord than to whittle in a losing match and curse the government. My son, away with the cigarette habit, for lo! thy breath stinketh like a glue factory and thou appearance is less intelligent than a stone dummy. Yes, thy art a cipher with the rim knocked off."

The Signal has gotten to be a strong democratic paper since the election, but before didn't raise its voice a single time in behalf of the county democratic nominated ticks et, but on the other hand did, before any one announced suggest the name of a republican for one of these offices. The Signal should tie a fan tail pigeon on its office roof so the people can keep up with its politics by watching to see which political party's wind is the strongest by the motion of the bird's tail. In this way the people could keep posted without any editorial in its columns.

The Signal did all the campaign printing, even the republicans gave us their patronage. They preferred the Signal because it stood up and spoke for its rights.

From Signal of 12th inst.
This is a mistake. We did quite a lot of printing for both parties and got the cash for it. And quite likely would have gotten all had our job press been big enough and had had had an old store debt hanging over us due some of the managers of the committee who were well aware "that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," and gave a credit of $18.00 on the books for things gotten two or three years ago instead of paying out the cash.

People who borrow their neighbors paper and take umbrage at sentiments expressed therein, are like eyes droppers. They ought to get mad and mad enough to quit borrowing papers, then give the editor a $1 and take their paper and not be dependent on some one else.—Clarkeville Record.

Mr. A. O. Granger, of Philadelphia, Pa., whose son is a member of the Freshman class of the N. G. A. College, has sent Prof. Colvin a hundred dollars to be used in supplying apparatus, chemicals, &c., for the use of the Biological Laboratory, with especial reference to the Freshman class work. This generous donation is most highly appreciated and will help in making the work of this department most interesting and efficient.

While at the case last Wednesday worrying over an item, feeling as if there was no happiness in store for a country editor and type setter, all at once a sudden change was brought about by the appearance of a colored woman at the office door with a beautiful stacked cake with a card on it having these words: "For W. Townsend, Nugget office; from Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hall." The cake measured ten inches across and five inches high; nice, well flavored and very delicious, the gift of which is highly appreciated by us, causing us to feel glad to realize by such acts of kindness that we have friends and neighbors that are so thoughtful of our editor. Thanks.

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.
When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. It is agreeable taste will surprise you.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 12, 1900.

If there is any local legislation desired for this county it is time notices of the same were being published.

Frank Thomson, of Ohio, one of the directors of the Consolidated G. M. Co., was here this week attending a directors meeting.

Marion Edmonson broke the shade of one of the arch lamps near the college the other night with a sling shot and that is the last we have heard of him.

A good lot of clothing that will be sold close to cost to close out. A big lot of shoes at lowest prices and nice line of dry goods and notions coming—at

J. H. McKee's.

Hereafter the tax receiver will have no trouble to get a complete list of all persons liable for taxes in the county as they will receive three cents for each name furnished to the receiver, the same to be paid out of the county treasurer.

Last Saturday Drs. Jones and Head amputated the leg of Willie Brady who was injured down at the Hand some time ago. It was amputated between the ankle and knee but it is believed now that it will yet have to be taken off higher up.

It seems now that sweet potatoes grow larger for good industrious ministers in Lumpkin county than any one else. As a proof Rev. J. J. Shed dug a white yam out of his patch weighing five pounds. No fertilizer was used. Who can beat it?

FOR SALE.—Genuine bargain. 120 acre farm, $450. Excellent uplands and extensive branch bottoms well ditched and fenced, good country house and cook room, stable, &c., large orchard. Only 4 miles from town. Apply at Nugget office.

Those interested will bear in mind that the last legislature changed the election for Justices of the Peace so as to take place on the first Saturday in December. Candidates should make up their minds at once and announce in the Nugget.

One of the boys has a pet coon and when everything gets dull he has it and some dog to fight which soon attracts a big crowd on the square. It whipped for the other day—two of them at once, which created much amusement for the "sons of rest."

The U. S. grand jury in Atlanta failed to return any true bill against W. J. Burt, charged with violating postal laws, warrant having been sworn out some time ago by O. C. Scupin, of Auraria, the particulars of which most of our readers are acquainted. Our information is gotten from a letter written to Mr. Burt by Attorney Geo. L. Bell dated Oct. 10, 1900, which reads as follows: "The U. S. grand jury returned no bill in the case in which you were bound over for violating postal laws."

Drs. Stow and Whelchel have many interesting things to tell about Vanderbilt's premises which they visited while at Asheville, N. C., recently. About 300 physicians from all parts of the United States attended the medical convention, most of whom took a drive out a few miles from the city and enjoyed a peep at Mr. Vanderbilt's costly mansion and looked over a portion of his 70,000 acres of land which he has enclosed by a wire fence, splendid well graded roads running all through the land, so as to give an observer an opportunity of looking over this vast body of land. He has 500 hands employed all the time looking after his fine horses, cattle, hogs and the farm generally. There they saw the finest stock in the country, among the hogs was one which cost Mr. Vanderbilt $1,200. Everything on the place built of this and durable as money can make it. A dairy is being built on the place now which will cost $35,000.

M. Chester is stepping about looking as happy as a big sun flower. All caused by the recent appearance of twin girls at his house.

Drs. Whelchel and Stow have returned from their North Carolina trip and to say that they had a nice, enjoyable time doesn't express it.

H. Guille, of Tennessee, who has been in the employ of the Consolidated Co. for some three months is going to move his family to our city. Welcome.

G. A. King, that good clever, sociable gentleman who has been sticking type at the Signal office for more than twelve months, left for Atlanta last Monday. He has our best wishes.

Rev. V. A. Higgins was thrown from his mule last Saturday while returning from the conference at Siloam church to his home and painfully injured, animal getting scared by the falling of the limb of a tree.

The Nugget was the first paper in Dahlonega to give the result of the election of the county and the only one that has given the result of each district. Always keep your eye on this paper if you wish to know what is going on in the county.

We had occasion to examine the registers book of Lumpkin county last Saturday. It is old and torn and reminded us of a child's first spelling book after finishing learning its A B C's. A dozen or so torn out leaves had been returned by the candidates but you couldn't tell head nor tail.

The successful candidates of Lumpkin county met at Bruce's gallery last week and had their pictures taken in a group. Of course they don't present a military appearance, although several of them served in the civil war, but they show off well and composed a body of men that are competent to discharge all business of the county coming under their jurisdiction.

Even the colored population of Dahlonega has joined with those on the march of improvement. Eula Jefferson being one of the number who is erecting a good size two story residence on his lot a short distance below the jail. Eula of course is a republican but is not going to cease his work till after the presidential election. He has to have a house to live in matters not which party is elected.

Geo. Richards, of Pickens county, who has been in the employ of the Consolidated Co. for some time, was wedded to Miss Nora Pinion last Sunday, Squire W. J. Worley officiating. We wish the happy couple a long and happy life, although it is useless for us to do so, for happiness is brought about by a couple and if they are not desirous of keeping it up country editors might wish for a life time and it would do no good.

Dr. N. P. Howard attended church last Sunday for the first time in six months. Up to about a year or so ago the Doctor attended divine services every time an opportunity was offered, but since losing his eye sight can only attend occasionally. Dr. Howard is a good Christian hearted man who has done more for the poor people of this county than any other man living and when his journey of life is ended here below and if he should fail to get to heaven there will be no chance for any one else.

The first piece of machinery for the Crown Mountain Gold Mining Co., reached its destination last Monday, which is up in Chestatee district, about thirty-five miles from Gainesville, being on the road about seven days. It required twelve mules to pull it and we do not know how many men were along. We mention this fact simply to show the great need of a railroad in this country, and we long to see the day when some company will take hold of the matter and build a railroad and connect with the outside world so we can get in and out without so much expense.

Twenty hands were put to work on the Briar Patch property last Monday, getting things in shape to go to mining right.

F. N. Brice, of Dayton, Ohio, who is to install the big wheel at the famous power plant at Crown Mountain's famous power plant arrived here last Wednesday.

An advertisement in the Nugget and a lamp at B. R. Meaders & Sons which burns water is causing many people to visit their store every day and night.

The city council met Wednesday to act upon a petition sent in by councilman McGuire, who desires to improve his building on the corner known as the Britain property. This is in the fire limits and as the council had heretofore refused to let others improve within the fire limits they could not afford to allow one of their number to do so.

The White Superior Court was a right lively session last week, causing Solicitor Charters to return home with a very pleasant smile on his face caused by having been so successful in his official duties. The fines run from $10 to $100. W. J. Dorsey pleaded guilty to voluntary manslaughter and received a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary.

The clean up at the chlorination plant belonging to the Consolidated Co. last week was very good, being much better than was expected, and we hope the day is not far distant when they will get a sufficient amount of sulphurates to keep the plant running on full time, which will be done as soon as they go down on their shafts and get every thing in good shape.

A short time after John and Will Sherley, who had been here for some time, left for their homes, one of the barbers notified City Marshal Harbinson that each owed him a small amount and that he wanted his money. The marshal notified an officer at Gainesville by phone and they were both arrested upon their arrival and we suppose the matter was settled and they resumed their journey.

Capt. Asbury and Col. J. W. H. Underwood, of White, were in the city last Tuesday. The Colonel was recently elected to represent that county but we don't see that it has made any change in him. He speaks to every one coming near and those not close enough he bows to them just like he used to when he attended school at Dahlonega. And as you all know Captain Asbury is built that way too.

A few days before P. H. Scott, the builder of the Consolidated Co's big mill, left for his home in the west the mill hands presented him with a beautiful ebony cane having a nice gold head, as their appreciation and high respect for the one they had been laboring under for more than twelve months. J. W. Smith was selected to present it who did so in a very nice and appropriate little speech, which was accepted by Mr. Scott in the greatest of appreciation. This kind old gentleman, by his friendly acts made strong ties of friendship bind him and his men together causing the separation to be a sad one when left them for his home in the west.

Capt. Mayne, of London, who has been looked for in these parts so long is certainly coming. We saw a message from him first of the week stating that he had landed in New York and would be here in a few days at the same time sending love to all. Of course this includes county editors. The first trip Mr. Mayne made to this country several years ago he took options on hundreds of acres of mineral and timbered lands in Lumpkin and adjoining counties, and spent in all about twenty thousand dollars. These options have all run out but probably the gentleman is coming this time with cash sufficient to buy up what he wants, enabling him to get property much cheaper. There is plenty more good property in this county that can be had at reasonable prices.

John Hatfield is also building him a house.

B. R. Meaders left for Swainsboro last Sunday.

We notice that eggs are higher in Dahlonega than in Atlanta.

You can get 25 nice visiting cards at the Nugget office for five cents.

Lost.—A Masonic pin. The finder will be rewarded by returning it to Eula Jefferson. 2t

J. A. McDougall, of this county, was wedded to Miss Nancy Bryan, of Fannin, on Thursday of last week.

A wedding recently occurred in the Western portion of this county, the contracting parties being James Woody and Miss Nora Bruce.

G. D. Bruce, representative elect from this county, left for Atlanta last Saturday where he goes to help frame more Georgia laws.

Guy Reese and Call Strickland left last Tuesday for the Land of Flowers. They will likely accept a situation in Florida and remain some time.

We printed 500 tax list for the city last Saturday, plainly showing that the mayor is now getting down to business. If you have to pay cost it is your fault.

Mr. Jacobs, a very prominent gentleman of Columbus, O., has spent several days in Dahlonega during the past week or so keeping an eye on his mining interest.

G. W. Lefery, who has been engaged in mining in Dawson county for some months, paid our city his first visit last Monday after looking around a while said that we had a beautiful place.

The scarlet fever scare is about over. The disease is decreasing in the eastern part of the county and with a little care the people of that section can soon begin to come and go when they please.

It is a little amusing to know of certain members of the church going to the house of worship and putting on such long faces just after the election, after joining in unity around a four gallon jug during the most of the campaign.

A large number of new residences and some business houses have been erected in Dahlonega this year. Being a considerable increase over that of last or any previous year here for a long time, causing a big increase in the valuation of the city property.

R. C. Meaders, of Dahlonega, left this week for the fair in Atlanta with two of his fine horses which he expects to enter. This is the first exhibit of horses any one in our county has ever had, and as these animals are fine ones we feel confident that Frank will get a prize.

Your attention is directed to the ad. of the Dahlonega Portrait Co. in this issue, of which G. D. Bruce is manager. Mr. Bruce is a stranger to you and his manner of doing business and the splendid pictures turned out by him is no new thing to you either, rendering it unnecessary for further comment from us.

U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle of Dahlonega, and Collector Richardson, of Gainesville, destroyed a big illicit distillery in Dawson county last Sunday morning, but captured no one. It was a large concern, having on hand about one thousand gallons of beer and well equipped otherwise, but now is numbered with the things of the past.

John Siebert, of Columbus, O., spent several days last week looking after his mining interests here. Mr. Siebert owns stock in the Consolidated, Standard and Crown Mountain mines but has never visited the latter property until this trip. After going out and making a close inspection expressed himself as being highly pleased with the property. The gentleman is one of Ohio's most prominent business men and we are always glad to have him visit this section.

W. J. Burt's letter will be found on the fourth page of this issue.

The weather has become cool enough now for us to have to draw on our old moth eaten socks and bid farewell to the beautiful autumn.

Mayor Price and wife, after a visit of a week or ten days in Pike county, returned Thursday of last week both having enjoyed themselves and stood the trip well.

We were pleased to see in our city last Sunday Dr. Wm. Tate, from Pickens county. The Doctor used to go to college here and has many friends who are always glad to see him come to our city.

When a lady plays a waltz on the piano on Sunday, it proves that her mind is wandering, and when a sudden change of "Ha, ha, ha, you and me," takes place it's an evident fact that she is in love.

Neither male or female should join the church to try to conceal their meanness, for they will be caught up with sooner or later. One tried this not long since and had to leave town. Such things sometimes run on smoothly for a long time but will leak out eventually.

Remember if you see anything in the Nugget that displeases you that it is not intended to offend you—only giving the news. God knows we don't wish to offend any one for it is about all we can do to pray for ourselves much less asking blessings for our enemies according to the Bible. It might cause a division in things asked for and our share considerably reduced.

Some newspaper men take advantage of the newspaper law and sends their paper where it is not wanted and forces the one taking it out of the office to pay for it. We don't do business that way. Whenever the Nugget goes out to a person others may know that it has been sent for. This is the way we do business. We are running the newspaper for the money there is in it, and not for love or sympathy.

The change in the weather is a considerable drawback to the two lovers in Dahlonega who have spent most of the summer nights out on the porch looking at the pretty stars and viewing the beautiful moon. They will have to do their courting hereafter in the presence of the girls parents which will prevent them from chewing one piece of gum at the same time, causing their lips to pop like tiny fire crackers.

No one need have any fears of catching the scarlet fever by riding on the Hope hack line between here and Gainesville because Dock Hope, the father of the contractor, has the disease in his family at Gainesville. There when the council passes an ordinance it is enforced. A flag is hung up when the fever breaks out at a residence and no one is allowed to come out of it or go in but the attending physician until all danger is over with.

It was right amusing the other day during the inclement weather too see a certain young man sitting picking his bango, singing "when you go a courting, go it in the rain, and when you go to marry, marry Liza Jane." His girls stopped in whose name was not Eliza nor Jane either. Both blushed and the music ended, because he had long since made her believe that he never even thought of any one else but her, much less singing about her.

As soon as Mayor Price returned from his Pike county trip he commenced attending to official business for the city, and on Saturday fired W. F. Worley twice and cost for endeavoring to act like the clown on show day. Charges were also preferred against W. H. Early, residing across the Chestatee river for crossing the quarantine dead line and coming to town, but he returned home before the mayor came to his case. More than a dozen persons have been arrested for violating this law and all acquitted. So we don't suppose Mr. Early will be hurt much.

Senator elect McAfee leaves for Atlanta to-morrow so as to be on hand and take his seat when the legislature convenes.

If you want any kind of clothing or fall goods call at J. F. Moores, who has everything that is wanted by the public.

We are glad to state that Ravap, who was seriously injured by the Hensons in Chestatee district on election day is getting all right again.

If a stove is not provided for the grand jury room it members will freeze out in December. A stove would make the room comfortable and be less expense in keeping it in wood than a fire place.

We have just received a new lot of stationery. Call and see us when wanting any printing done nice, cheap and prompt. Also keep a good lot of type writer paper on hand all the time. Come and see us when wanting something that is pretty, durable and cheap.

J. H. McKee, who has been advertising in the Nugget for twelve months has renewed the same for another year which proves that it pays him otherwise he wouldn't have done so. Mr. McKee has a large and complete assortment of goods at reasonable prices. Stand, Thomas building.

Some one broke into R. C. Wood's shop on Cavender's creek Sunday night and carried off quite a lot of dynamite. This is the fourth time this shop has been broken into within the past four years and something was carried off nearly every time. If they don't watch some body is going to get into the chain gang.

Those who advertise in the Nugget find it profitable. To prove it we have patrons who have been advertising with us continuously since we have been running this paper—going on four years, and it is not because they are doing so to collect some old debt for we don't owe any of them one cent.

On Friday, a few days after the show some female was seen come riding across Crane's Hill astride like a man. Shortly after getting in sight the horse began to trot and the rider not being an expert "cow boy" rider, dropped off on the ground. However, the animal was gentle and didn't get scared, and no injuries were received.

This is not leap year and girls who go the postoffice every time the mail comes, either day or night, and stand around among the school boys and miners until the mail is open, lay themselves liable to be talked about. Those wishing to marry should not go to see the boys, let the boys come to see them, and then they should be very careful what kind of a boy it is.

Three of the oldest people of the county got together and had a kind of a reunion up at a relatives house in Crumby district last Sunday, being old Uncle Jacky Grizzle and Mr. and Mrs. Swancy. Mr. Swancy is 97 and his wife and Mr. Grizzle are each 94. It was right interesting to see these old people together and hear them talk about things that occurred long years ago.

R. R. Pool, a painter who has been here for about six months, received news last Friday that one of his brothers was seriously sick in Chattanooga and he and his wife left for that city early the next morning. His brother had been engaged at work in Galveston, Tex. Galveston must certainly be a very sickly city, as private letters from there state that many dead bodies are still being found, causing those in search to have to wear rubbers over their faces to enable them to carry on their work. Buildings are going up as fast as labor and money can do it. Wages are very good, commonest kind of mechanics receiving five dollars per day, but this should be no inducement to any one when they stand a good chance of getting sick and losing their life, although some parties are speaking about going there from Dahlonega.

DAHLONEGA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Dahlonega Presbyterian Church.

There was a Presbyterian church organization and house of worship in Dahlonega before the civil war, but its records have been lost. I have been told by old citizens that the house was built by Dr. Mason, an officer of the Mint, on a lot donated for that purpose by Col.
R. H. Moore.

When I came to Dahlonega in October 1873, there were a few members left but the church was in a dormant state. They had been under the pastoral care of Revs.
Groves H. Cartledge and Paul Morton. A. F. Morrison, Jas.
Kelley and Robt. F. Mayes were elders. The elders' wives and F.
D. Boardfield and wife and Miss Margaret Kelley were also members.

In 1874, Rev. Jas. Washburn, of Nachoochee Valley, visited us and reorganized the church. Under his ministry several members were added to the list of members.

Mr. Washburn, having gone to South Georgia, Rev. R. W. Milner succeeded him, serving as evangelist of the Athens Presbytery. Mr.
Milner undertook to build a house of worship and his efforts resulted in the partial construction, on the lot donated by Col. Moore, of the brick house now occupied by Dr.
Stow. A board of trustees was organized and among its members were D. W. Lewis, J. R. Lawhon, and Wier Boyd. W. P. Price and N. H. Hand having served before on the building committee. The trustees failed however to get subscriptions enough to pay the contractor, S. D. Dearman, for the work done. The house and lot were therefore sold to Col. Price.
The house was completed and became the office of the Dahlonega Signal.

The following names are on the old subscription list as having paid their subscriptions: Sitton & Bro.,
Goodman Hughes, W. H. McAfee,
B. R. Meaders, J. W. and W. A.
Burnside, A. J. Crissan, B. P.
Gaillard, A. J. Nills, Wier Boyd,
H. D. Gurley, N. F. Howard, W.
P. Howell, W. H. Satterfield, H.
Baker, R. F. Mayes, F. W. Hall,
F. R. Boardfield, W. P. Price, John
Mayes and N. H. Hand.

Services were held as they had been all along in the Baptist and Methodist churches, both denominations kindly allowing us to perform the rites of baptism and communion in their churches.

Referring back to the period just after the war, we find the building erected by Dr. Mason, occupied by a garrison of Federal soldiers, and greatly damaged by them. It was subsequently claimed as private property by a son-in-law of Dr.
Mason and sold. It was then torn down and the material of which it was built was used in the erection of what is now known as Wimpy's mill.

Revs. N. H. Smith, Hugh Mc-Lees, Mr. Farr and I. W. Waddell
afterwards supplied the church,
holding services once a month.
Sunday school exercises had been held at various times in the two churches mentioned above.

About two years ago efforts to build were resumed, though the outlook was discouraging. Howsever, Providence smiled upon our efforts, and more has been accomplished than at first seemed possible. The ladies of our church with the aid and cooperation of others worked wonders in the matter of getting up subscribers. Aid was also obtained from the fund left by Mary E. Telfair, of Savannah, Ga. and from the W. A. Moore fund. We now have a neat little church house, and while it is right that we should feel proud of it, we should even be mindful of our ever increasing responsibility to work for the Master, and welcome within its walls those who wish to worship God. We should pray that many be added to our numbers and that we may all continue a devout and loving brotherhood.

Two Interesting Love Letters
From a Dahlonegan.

DAHLONEGA, GA., —

My Dear Girl:
I take great pleasure in writing
you these few lines to let you know that I still think of you often and never will forget the happy days that I have spent with you when you used to live over on the hill at the mill. Darling, I thought you was the prettiest girl
I ever saw and you are the same sweet girl now that you was then.

Here is three songs that I will send you as you asked me to, and would do anything else for my little sweet Daisy that I could. Oh honey, how I wish that you was my wife. If you was I could live so happy with you. But if I don't get you I will never do any good in this world, for honey I can't help studying about you so much.

My sweet, sweet, sweet darling
Daisy, I guess I had better close for I have told you a thousand times that I loved you, and honey,
I would not tell a girl as sweet as you are a lie. So good bye, bye sweetie.

Your truly and sincere friend,
J. F. —
Good bye little darling till then.

Remember me it's but a task,
Remember me it's all I ask,
Remember me and so will I,
Remember you till I die.
As ever, yours sincerely,

COME AND

C

I take much pleasure in writing you a few lines to let you know that I never will forget you. Oh honey, it nearly killed me when I left you Tuesday evening. But I hope, darling that I won't have to leave you dear. Oh please do write and tell me whether you will marry me or not and if there is no chance to get you. Honey, please write and tell me and I will never come again. I will stay single all my days and grieve after my sweet darling Daisy, the girl that is so dear to me, the one that I would die for. Darling, I don't think that there is a boy that loves a girl just as good as I love you. Dearest, if you will marry me I will let you burn my eyes out or stick needles in me or treat me any way you want to,
and you know I love you honey or I would not let you treat me that way. Mattie, oh honey, I would treat you so good if you just only will be my wife. Dearest, please write and tell me so I will know what to do. I guess I will kill myself if you say no. So I will close. Please answer this and send me a kiss.

Your truly, your own true friend

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are killing graveyards lies a painful and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 26, 1900.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

The legislature convened on last Wednesday.

Two million people in India are receiving relief.

The negroes of Georgia returned $14,118,720 for taxation.

The damage caused by storms in Texas is over $5,000,000.

The city officers of Macon are hereafter to be chosen by white primary.

L. J. Glenn, a well known attorney of Atlanta has been indicted for forgery.

In Georgia the tax returns show that there are 16 negro lawyers, 43 doctors and 4 dentists.

Forty-two corpses were picked up at Galveston last Friday and no doubt many others will be found.

There is now $416,000 in the state treasury which shows old Georgia to be in a right healthy condition.

The amount of claims filed for pensions who were in the Spanish-American war up to the 22nd inst. was 34,000.

The other day when Mayor Peterson, the chief commissary of Cuba died of yellow fever in Havana his wife committed suicide by shooting herself.

Mary Bailey, a negress, residing near Jacksonville, Fla., gave birth to five children, all boys, one day last week. Children all died shortly after their birth.

The grand jury of Fulton county has been doing a lively business. On Friday last eighty-seven true bills were returned, thirty-seven of the defendants are now in jail.

Three little children belonging to W. M. Hayes were badly mangled by hogs in Athens the other day while catching some pigs just to hear them squeal. The old hog crushed one arm and broke another wrist while the third got off with lighter injuries.

The republicans of Lumpkin county are requested to meet at Dahlonega on the first Saturday in November next at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of transacting some important business. Some good speaking expected.

B. F. ANDERSON, Chm'n.

It is strange that some people expect everything of a newspaper and at the same time never give it five cents worth of business. A newspaper is like most other human concerns. It likes to accommodate those who patronize it says the Calhoun Times.

Governor Candler will ask the legislature to adopt a system of uniform school books. This is a good move and we trust that the legislature will pass such a bill. The present system is often changed and is too expensive, making it a burden to school patrons.

Seventy new pensions are just announced as having been issued on October 2. The list is about equal in length of the one published a week ago, showing that the stream is not fluctuating, but steady. No doubt it will flow grandly on until the year 2000. Anything can be done in the name of the army that went out of business thirty-five years ago.—Macon Telegraph.

There were 59,835 votes cast at the last election in Georgia for ratification to the amendment of the constitution pensioning indigent widows of confederate soldiers, while only 7,220 were cast against it, making a majority of 52,600 for it. Some of the widows who are wide awake to their interest have already sent in their claims. But they will have to wait until the present legislature makes an appropriation for this purpose. It is believed that an additional of $150,000 will be sufficient to meet the demand.

Mining Notes.

The Kingsbury mine is doing well.

Turkey Hill is giving splendid results.

Work is going right ahead at the Crawford mine with good results. We are informed that the dredge boat in the Chestatee river near New Bridge, is doing well. Mr. Hogan is making from 35 to 50 pennyweights every day.

They have struck a rich sulphuret vein out at the Lumpkin mine. We were shown a piece of the ore the other day by general manager Walker, which was the best that we have seen in a long time.

Birch Bros. will soon have their electric plant in shape again enabling them to operate their dredge boat in the Chestatee river both day and night. The clean up they inform us are still satisfactory.

W. E. Jacobs, of Ohio, who is well known by the people of Dahlonega and liked by all, has been elected one of the directors of the Dahlonega Consolidated Co., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. Ingersoll.

They made another splendid clean up down at the Hand last week causing all the stockholders present to have a pleasant appearance. They are getting down to economical expenditures now which will give bigger results and much better satisfaction.

State Geologist Yeates says that a gold bearing vein has been discovered on the Hamilton property in McDuffie county, which adjoins the celebrated Columbia mines. C. L. Courmant, president of the Hamilton Mining Co., states that his company expect to put up a twenty stamp mill.

Down at the Stewart mine last week Peter Woody cleaned up 100 pennyweights from the placer diggings and it was expected by those who looked at the plates that they would take up about 900 pennyweights Saturday at the little five stamp mill. We haven't heard from there since.

They are going to work in earnest down at the Palmer mine in Dawson county. Last week the big 20 horse power engine and a five stamp mill were received and will be put in running order as soon as possible. Then as they are needed more stamps will be added. The owners are residents of Atlanta, Ga., who are following mining not for pleasure but for profit.

H. T. Henderson, who was recently appointed superintendent at the Hand to fill the place of Alvin Brooks, who resigned, is moving things along just like clock work. He is a southern man and understands the territory and people better than our western friends. The Consolidated Co. have had quite a lot of western men at work for them, who find them good miners but very extravagant and expensive. These are all gone now and the operations are being run by southern labor.

They are moving things right along in a business like manner down at the Briar Patch, by the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co., under the general supervision of Dr. Cravens, surveying the 35 mile ditch and making roads so as enable them to get to the mine with 20,000 pound boilers and other machinery. About 25 hands are at work, all natives, among them the Norrell boys who, a few months ago cleaned up 350 pennyweights of gold from a ten foot pit on this property. This will give the reader some idea of the richness of the mine this company is going to operate.

The Georgia and Ducktown miners are trying their hands down at the Hand mine to see who can cut the most rock. On last Friday Zeko Blackstock, a Georgian, drilled seventy-nine feet and three inches. Buchanan, another Georgian, cut something over fifty feet, while a Tennesseean, right by his side, only drove a little over thirty feet, which still leaves Georgian in the lead. You may take the least that was cut on this shift, and it is a great deal faster operation than by the old method of hand drilling. This air drilling is certainly a big improvement, enabling a mine to be worked faster and more profitable now than by the old crude method.

Capt. Ingersoll, on account of failing health has resigned as general manager of the mines belonging to the Dahlonega Consolidated Co., whose place is filled by Mr. Breyman, of Ohio, the present vice-president of the company. Capt. Ingersoll has been in charge of this property for the last twenty-five years, from the time it was owned by Col. Hand up to the present. He has been a great friend to the laboring man although they don't realize it. The only complaint the laborers make against him is that he never allowed them big wages. They don't take into consideration that when times were dull here and work scarce that he did this in order to employ more and assist a larger number of people. Some of you will greatly miss the Captain. Mark our prediction. Mr. Breyman has been down about a month looking after certain work. He is a close observer, clearly demonstrating that he knows what he is doing, desiring to employ good hands and pay them fair wages.

Last week when so many hands were discharged by the Consolidated Co., the news went out that a suspension of work would soon take place, but it only meant business. Thousands of dollars have been lavishly expended by some one in authority, who did it or is responsible for it we do not know. Much of this work was still continuing, which if it had gone on would have burst the richest corporation in existence. This has ceased now and Mr. Breyman is getting the work down systematically and they are getting good results. A big new rich vein has been struck just above the mill. All the underground work is moving right along keeping the mill continuously in operation. One hundred tons from the Knight or Breyman vein realized $800.00 right recently, which shows what they are doing when 50 cent ore can be profitably handled there. It is with not a little pleasure that the NUGGET, which is ever on the outlook for news that will encourage mining in our midst, is able to announce that the chlorination plant erected by the energetic gentlemen at the head of the Consolidated Company, is a perfect success, in every particular. Two tests have been made during the past thirty days, the first on 240 tons of concentrates, and the second on 15 tons. All of the machinery in the works ran with remarkable smoothness and accomplished all that the most sanguine advocates of this method have ever claimed for it. The furnace, which is an Automatic Roasting Furnace manufactured by the Edw. P. Allis Company, of Milwaukee, Wis., effected a perfect roast, which was feared by some it would not do. The economical working of the furnace together with the perfect ease with which it may be adjusted, increasing or diminishing the volume of concentrates to be roasted in a period of twenty-four hours has been thoroughly demonstrated and to the satisfaction of all who have seen the working of the plant. The chlorination barrels, precipitating tanks and other machinery perform their work admirably. The Nugget, which is after the truth and nothing but the truth, can state that the plant is an absolute success in every particular. With concentrates averaging in value $394 per ton, it has been demonstrated that 97 per cent of the gold in the concentrates can be recovered by this method, which is certainly a very close saving. With the absolute success of chlorination on the ores of the Dahlonega district firmly established, as it is every miner in this section should join with the Nugget in heartiest congratulations to the managements of the Consolidated. They have builded wisely and well, in the construction of their chlorination plant, which without question has demonstrated the fact that within a very short time, this will be preeminently the gold producing section of the world. The conservative may possibly think that the Nugget is a little to enthusiastic in its predictions, but we will state that we have all along contended that when the proper appliances were once put into force, in this section for the efficient saving of the values in the concentrates (that heretofore have been allowed, wastefully, to run into the river) the problem would be solved and that the Southern Gold Belt would occupy its rightful place as one of the principal gold producers in the universe. The Consolidated has energetically demonstrated the fact that chlorination is a success in this field. What more will the skeptic ask?

Miss Ada, daughter of W. J. Hightower, of Dahlonega, was wedded last Sunday to Mr. Charlie Fowler of Pickens county, Rev. Mr. Verdell performing the ceremony.

Don't Get Thin

Get fat; get nice and plump; there is safety in plumpness. Summer has tried your food-works; winter is coming to try your breath-mill. Fall is the time to brace yourself. But weather is tricky; look out! Look out for colds especially.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE,

MOORE & BROTHER, Prop'rs. Good Turnouts at Reasonable Rates at All Hours, Prompt and Quick Service,

The city council held a meeting last Saturday but transacted no business of any interest to the city.

All the northern ladies and gentlemen that were here last Sunday attended services at the Presbyterian church.

Maj. McClure, one of Dawson county's wide awake and most industrious citizens, spent last Saturday in our city.

Our contemporary, the Signal, failed to make its appearance last week. A sudden change in its politics and an overdose of democracy just after the election made it sick.

Wm. Fisher, that jovial good hearted Ohian, who owns stock in the Dahlonega Consolidated mine and has been here frequently, was down again this week. We like to see Mr. Fisher come, for he makes everything lively wherever he goes.

For SALE.—Genuine bargain, 120 acre farm, $450. Excellent uplands and extensive branch bottoms well ditched and fenced, good country house and cook room, stable, etc., large orchard. Only 4 miles from town. Apply at NUGGET office.

The State Oratorical contest takes place in Atlanta on the night of the 2nd of November, and nearly all of the students of the N. G. A. College will be on hand together with several professors of the college and a number of other citizens of Dahlonega.

All the hands who had been working at the Betz mine near Auraria, came up last Saturday and received their money from Mr. Betz through Col. R. H. Baker. They had not been receiving their pay very promptly and were fixing to commence legal proceedings against the mine.

The latest curiosity was up in Chestatee district one day last week caused by a woman who is not used to drinking our white liquor, taking on so much of it that she pitched from a high porch and lit on her head. After spinning round a few times she got up and cursed the one that made the liquor.

Our office was visited by Messrs. Harry E. Simons and E. T. Miller, of Columbus, O., last Monday. Mr. Simons has an interest in the Consolidated and has been here before. Mr. Miller is managing editor of the Ohio State Journal, and the object of his visit was to look around a little and view the gold mines and hills and mountains. It is his first trip. He is a practical printer of much experience, having run a hand press years ago while learning the art.

We understand that a man calling himself Lead who claimed to be from Ducktown, appeared across the mountain during a revival at Mt. Lebanon recently and joined the church. Soon afterwards the good members presented him with a new suit of clothes so that he might have a better appearance when baptized. But lo and behold when the day for baptizing arrived Lead was not on hand. He had gone in another direction carrying a pair of overalls and some other things not belonging to him in addition.

In less than twelve months from its introduction and before the ink had scarcely time to dry after the ordinances of the city of Dahlonega were published the one prohibiting repairing done or wooden buildings erected within the fire limits, was repealed. This was done to accommodate one of the councilmen who wished to do some of this kind of work. We suppose that the noted goose law is a thing of the past as it prohibits these white feathered birds from running at large within the fire limits and now as there is no fire limit we suppose these dangerous (?) fowls will again be given the freedom of the streets.

Continue sending us your job work.

More new buildings are going up and improvement still seems to be the order of the day in Dahlonega.

Quite a number of our citizens are and have been attending in the Atlanta fair and those who have returned pronounce it good.

After this date, Oct. 26th, I will sell goods only for cash or barter. Positively nothing charged. All who are indebted to me by note or account must settle the same at once. Respectfully, J. E. McGEE.

Dr. Stow's three story office is going up. It is located just below Main street bridge and will certainly be a convenient place for every one desiring the Doctors services.

□ All kinds of shot guns and New Royal sewing machines at reduced prices at Anderson & Jones. Also over coats and overalls, mackintoshes and fascinators and a big line of ready made clothing at a bargain.

A. W. Cain, of this county, who has recently been elected principal of the Dawsonville High School, left for that place last Sunday to begin his duties. Mr. Cain has much experience as a teacher, fully competent and will give perfect satisfaction as he has every other place he has taught at.

G. B. Birch, of St. Louis, honored our sanctuary by a visit last Friday afternoon in company with J. W. Birch, one of his brothers, who has been engaged in mining in this county for several years. It is Mr. G. B. Birch's first visit to Lumpkin county, who will spend only a few days and then return home. The gentleman is sociable and clever and we hope that he will come again and stay longer.

The other night J. M. Hutchins went down to Mr. Watsons and acted in such a manner as to cause the whole family to be afraid of him, all leaving home. A peace warrant was issued by Esquire Worley and the defendant arrested who made bond for his appearance till the next morning. Before the time of the trial arrived a compromise was effected and the warrant dismissed, causing everything to be calm and serene now.

Prof. O. Palmour sent in his resignation a few days ago to the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College and the chair of history in the institution is vacant until it can be filled by the board, which will be done as soon as they can find one to suit them. Prof. Palmour has accepted the professorship in a college in Atlanta. This well liked Professor has been with us a long time. He was graduated at the N. G. A. College, then taught in it quite awhile, causing his departure to make us feel like we are losing some of our home folks. He carries with him the best wishes of the people of Dahlonega.

Some days ago Mr. Lefergy, who is mining down in Dawson, sent Mr. Loveless, of Dahlonega, a lot of ore to examine by a negro man, which was placed away without untying the sack containing it until he got ready. Mr. Loveless after procuring his pestle, mortar and pan opened the sack in order to begin the test, and in reaching down into the bag was very much surprised when he pulled out a big chunk of corn bread. For a while he was at a loss to know how it occurred. Being an old Dawson county citizen he was fully aware that that section didn't produce veins of corn bread, and placing his testing apparatus away went to something else, not forgetting the bread transaction, however. Later on an explanation was made. The negro after receiving the ore had put it away in his shanty and when he got ready to come picked up the wrong sack. But let us not forget the negro when he went back hungry, for the ore was as useless for dieting purposes to the negro, as the corn bread was for Mr. Loveless to put it in from.

The tax collector is now on his first round for the purpose of collecting taxes but is not doing much as nearly every body puts this duty off as long as they can.

WANTED.—Help, good healthy stout girl, able to cook and accustomed to children, as general help. Good wages, comfortable home, christian surroundings. Address: P. O. Box 93, Dahlonega, Ga.

A little calf made its appearance at Mrs. John Weavers, residing a few miles above Dahlonega, having only three legs and no eyes. It had two ears but one was on top of its head. It was killed as it looked so scary the cow was afraid of it.

The officials have kept the scarlet fever out of town so far. They are very careful. It was reported that Mat Wood's children, living over at the Findley had it the other day and a doctor was sent over to make an investigation and found it to be a false alarm.

Mr. Talmage, of Chicago, who arrived in our city last week, lost his pocket book containing a thousand dollar deed, one hundred and twenty-five dollar check, about $40 in cash and some other valuable papers. The last time he remembered having it was in Atlanta.

Wilson Head died in Dahlonega last Saturday afternoon and his remains were interred in the cemetery at Yellow Creek the following day in the presence of many people. Mr. Head had been suffering from meningitis for more than two years, causing him to have to give up farm work and move to town and engage in lighter. For a few weeks previous to his death he had been clerking at J. E. Tate's store, but the early part of last week he had to give up his work and go home and grew worse and worse until he expired. He leaves a wife and three small children and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Some of the citizens in the scarlet fever stricken part of this county are somewhat offended because the city council have quarantined against them. This they ought not to do but should use every effort to help stamp it out, but instead of this some of them don't seem to care who gets it after they have either had it themselves or in their family. Not long since a man residing in Lumpkin county went down to Gainesville who was not thoroughly well of the fever and went in where Joe Bell was. Mr. Bell not aware of the fact went home and two of his children took the disease from his clothes, breaking out during their fathers absence, who can't go home now, but is boarding at the hotel and has no way to talk to his family only by telephone.

The blockade liquor sold in Dahlonega last Friday night caused City Marshal Harbison to have to cage three the next day who imbibed too freely. The first was a negro by the name of Jackson who brought up a lot of men owning stock in the Consolidated mine. This negro took on enough of the liquor to cause him to think that he owned an interest too, who drove a fine span of horses across the square with his head reared back and his feet sticking across the dash board with his tongue protruding from his four inch mouth looking like a beef's liver. The next was Henry Whitaker, a Dahlonega negro, who got mad and had a fistfight with his wife. And the third was Wylie Mobley who joined the church over in Union county and wrote us a letter recently. He got so full that he fell by the way side out in Jim Worley's yard. Marshal Harbison came along and good Samaritan like secured a wagon and tenderly carried him to the calaboose and supplied him with a pitcher of water till the time of the cafare was fixed by Mayor Price at the courthouse, each of the defendants being assessed seven dollars to help defray the expenses of the occasion.

Whenever you see an assertion made in the NUGGET you may know that we have some grounds for making it.

We had nice, pleasant weather until it commenced raining last Monday, stopping all outdoor work until it ceased.

Marshal Harbison made cases yesterday against G. H. Moore, J. H. Moore and F. L. Reese for crossing over the quarantine line, but have not been disposed of as we go to press.

The blank bonds to be filled out by the recently elected officers of this county were received last Saturday and on Monday J. B. Brown, treasurer, had his $10,000 bond made and the stamp on it long before night.

The time for gathering of corn and making up syrup by the farmers of this section has arrived causing a joyful occasion for both the old and the young. The boys will gather corn during the day and attend old time candy pullings after night.

Miners seem to be changing their places of abode lately, or at least a few of them have. Some days ago quite a lot of Georgia miners went from here to Ducktown, and last week between fifteen and twenty Tennesseans came over here.

Up in Chestatee district on John Cannon's property is yet to be seen a saw mill built in 1841, being the first mill that was ever erected in Lumpkin county. It has an old fashion sash saw, which is still in its proper position, though most of the timbers are decayed. The same head block and some other pieces of timber that were used in its construction fifty-nine years ago are still there. This old mill was built by Uncle Davie Moore, who has long since gone to his reward, lower down on the river, and it and another saw mill built about the same time by John Peck, who is also dead, cut all the lumber that was used in building the old houses that are yet standing in Dahlonega as well as furnishing all other lumber used in the construction of the town more than half a century ago.

We present to our readers this week two love letters written by a certain young man, whose address is Dahlonega, to a young lady residing a few miles distant. We will not give the name of either as the lover will feel bad enough any way when he sees them in print, who may commit suicide if he loves the girl as well as he writes. All should read them for they contain the sweetest words and the most of them in the fewest pages we ever saw. Read them, you who have decided that you wanted a divorce. It may cause you to reflect and love each other better than ever. And those married women who are flirting with other men deceiving their husbands and believing that they are deceiving the public, by violating their marriage vows, should closely scan them. It may cause them to renew their love for their husbands and live a new life. And married men ditto.

A bit of interesting church information reached us from Dawson county last Saturday, being related to us by a reliable gentleman, which is as follows: A few weeks ago at Gothic church in that county, two of its members were dismissed because they had been making liquor contrary to the laws of the United States and the rules of the church, the evidence being taken from two boys who were not members of that nor any other church. This very much displeased those belonging to the blockading department of the church who all attended services on the 20th and being in the majority turned out fifteen of the oldest members of the church for contempt, claiming that the proceedings of the previous meeting was not legal because the testimony was not gospel evidence. This ends the matter here below and those interested will have to endure their grievances until the case is passed upon in the Supreme Court above.

It is reported that David Patton, who has a living wife in Dahlonega has recently married again in Tennessee.

Walter Anderson, of Dawson county, was up before Com. Baker on the 19th charged with illicit distilling, who after an investigation was bound over. The next day Duol Burt of the same county for the same charge and the same offense, was acquitted.

There is something worse than the kissing bug troubling the ladies in the mountains of Georgia, being Methodist ministers. We understand that only a few days ago one lost his position in the pulpit less than twenty miles of Dahlonega, caused by imitating one of these bugs.

Zeke Blackstock, the champion Georgia miner, who has drilled farther in rock in a day than any one ever trying it in Lumpkin county, left last Tuesday for Charlotte, N. C., where he goes to accept a position in a mine near that city at about double the wages he was getting here.

The teachers and pupils of the public school are preparing to give an entertainment in the college chapel, Monday evening, October 29, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of securing funds for the purchase of a larger school bell. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Let all attend that can so as to enable them to secure the much needed bell.

J. Sweet, the master machinist, who has been in the employ of the Consolidated Co., for a number of months, left for Florence, Col., on yesterday morning in company with his wife. Mr. Sweet and his good lady have made a host of warm friends since being in our midst, all of whom regretted to see them depart. Mr. Sweet has had under his supervision numbers of men from various parts of the country and no friction has ever occurred—not an angry word has taken place between him and any of his hands or those employing him. Everything worked agreeable and pleasant and in perfect harmony, causing all to love and respect him. The evening before he departed the hands presented him with a beautiful ring and pin, as a token of their friendship for the one whose actions toward them had caused them to love him. He and his lady have our best wishes.

On the 2nd Saturday in December the citizens of Dahlonega will be called upon to select four new councilmen. It is time that they were looking over the field to see if they cannot get four men that are public spirited (not private) to fill these places. Some of those acting this year have looked after their own private interests more than they have the public, and have passed and changed laws to that effect. Not caring if it was to the detriment of the town or other citizens just so it convenience or benefitted them. This is wrong and will always be a drawback to moving forward until the program is changed. Take for instance the fire limits ordinance which was passed at the beginning of the year, preventing any wooden buildings from being built or repaired within it. Citizens who wished to put up houses during the summer appealed to the council to be permitted to erect them but were told no. Just a few days ago one of the councilmen asked for the same privilege and the law was repealed so as to permit him to proceed with his work. Is this right? Is there any justice in any such proceedings? Holding the power and using it to discomfit those they wish and work to the interest of each other. This same councilman owns three favorite dogs and we would not be surprised should he ask to be relieved from paying taxes on them and the dog law is repealed so as to accommodate him. The present council certainly has a brotherly feeling for each other and work together in unity and for each others interests.

Mrs. Copeland and her son Romo are here on a visit.

Mrs. John B. Graham, of Two Run, leaves to-morrow for Texas.

See desolation notice of the Gurney Drug Co. elsewhere.

Attorney C. L. Bryson, of Dawsonville, paid our office a pleasant visit Wednesday.

Quite a number of northern ladies spent several days in Dahlonega last week looking over the mines. Some of them own stock in the Consolidated and take as much interest in gold mining as most as a southern man.

D. Lance and Miss Dessie Rider both of this county, were wedded one day last week. It was a run-away match. The young lady carried a turn of corn to mill and not returning her brother went to see about her and found her married.

We had the pleasure of meeting for the first time Mr. Hagar last Wednesday, who is running a dredge boat in the Chestatee river near New Bridge. Mr. Hagar has been at work down there some three years and has only been to Dahlonega three times which shows how attentive he is to his business.

At Union Store Co. can be found bargains in every line of goods. Shoes and hats especially, slightly shop worn but good as new, going at half price to make room for new goods. Mens shirts and pants to close out regardless of cost. The best and cheapest line of casimers, jeans pants, overalls, pants and jackets to be found in the city. Under wear good and cheap.

Farmers have their troubles it seems the same as country printers. The other day down near New Bridge, Willie Keith got a sack of wheat and rode out to the field to sow it. When he got off to put his sack on a log the mule ran back two miles to the house. After catching it he returned and found that the cows had destroyed his wheat sack and all. Such is life.

A splendid vegetable and meat grinder combined only $1.25. Winter underwear, some beautiful fancy glassware, window washers, parlor lamps, half gallon crystal tanks, fast grinder coffee mills, outing flannel, fine black satteen, etc., just received. The price is based on the idea of quick sales for cash, therefore the shortest possible profit to keep going is the way we run it.

B. R. READERS & SONS.

The order appointing the officers and un-commissioned officers of the N. G. A. College Battalion of cadets was published Tuesday morning as follows: Major, S. A. Harris.
